6 Contingent liabilities

On 6 December 2012, Rolls-Royce Holdings plc (the ultimate parent company of the company) announced that it had passed information to the Serious Fraud Office (SFO), an independent United Kingdom government department, following a request from the SFO for information about allegations of malpractice in overseas markets.

On 23 December 2013, Rolls-Royce Holdings plc (RRHPLC) announced that it had been informed by the SFO that it had commenced a formal investigation. Since the initial announcement, RRHPLC has continued its investigations and is engaging with the SFO and other authorities in the UK, the USA and elsewhere in relation to the matters of concern.

The consequence of these disclosures will be decided by the regulatory authorities. It is too early to predict the outcomes, but these could include the prosecution of individuals and of the RRHPLC Group, the potential for fines, penalties or other consequences cannot currently be assessed. As the investigation is ongoing, it is not yet possible to identify the timescale in which these issues might be resolved.

7 Parent and ultimate parent undertaking

The immediate parent undertaking is Rolls-Royce Power Engineering plc.

The ultimate parent undertaking and controlling party is Rolls-Royce Holdings plc, which is the parent undertaking of the largest group to consolidate these financial statements. Rolls-Royce plc is the parent undertaking of the smallest group to consolidate these financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements of these groups are available to the public and may be obtained from 62 Buckingham Gate, London, SW1E 6AT.
