PRELIMINARY

1. The regulations contained in Table A in the Schedule to the Companies (Tables A to F) Regulations 1985 ("Table A") shall apply to the Company with the following modifications:
 - 1.1 they shall not apply to the extent that they are excluded or varied by or inconsistent with these articles of association;
 - 1.2 to the extent (if any) that they are amended from time to time, they shall apply as amended, except to the extent that any amendment is inconsistent with these articles of association;
 - 1.3 they shall not apply if they are repealed and new regulations are enacted in their place; in that case, (a) the new regulations shall apply except to the extent that they are inconsistent with these articles of association, and (b) this paragraph 1.3, and paragraph 1.2 above, shall apply to the new regulations, and to any new regulations in turn enacted in their place or in place of any remoter successor to Table A, as they applied to the regulations contained in Table A;
 - 1.4 in Table A, and in any amendment to Table A or any regulations applying as set out in paragraphs 1.2 or 1.3 above, "Secretary" shall mean the Secretary of the Company or any other person appointed to perform the duties of the Secretary of the Company, including a Joint, Assistant or Deputy Secretary.
 - 1.5 Words or expressions contained in these Articles of Association bear the same meaning as in the Act (as defined in Table A) but excluding any statutory modification or re-enactment which gives a meaning which is inconsistent with these Articles of Association.

2. The Directors may determine who shall sign any instrument to which the seal is affixed and unless otherwise so determined it shall be signed by a Director and by the Secretary or by a second Director. The use of the seal shall not require the authority of the Directors.

DIRECTORS

Alternate

3. Any Director (other than an alternate director) may appoint any other Director, or any other person approved by the Directors and willing to act, to be an Alternate Director and may remove from office an Alternate Director so appointed by him.

An Alternate Director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of Directors and of all meetings of committees of Directors of which his appointor is a member, to attend and vote at any such meeting at which the Director appointing him is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a Director in his absence but shall not, without the authority of the Board of Directors, be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for his services as an Alternate Director but it shall not be necessary to give notice of such a meeting to an Alternate Director who is absent from the United Kingdom.

An Alternate Director shall cease to be an Alternate Director if his appointor ceases to be a Director; but, if a Director retires but is reappointed or deemed to have been reappointed at the meeting at which he retires, any appointment of an Alternate Director made by him which was in force immediately prior to his retirement shall continue after his reappointment.

Any appointment or removal of an Alternate Director shall be by notice to the Company signed by the Director making or revoking the appointment or in any other manner approved by the Directors.

Save as otherwise provided in the articles, an Alternate Director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a Director and shall alone be responsible for his own acts and defaults and he shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

Contracts

4. A Director who is in any way either directly or indirectly interested in a contract, arrangement or matter or proposed contract or arrangement with or concerning the Company shall declare the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Directors in accordance with Section 317 of the Companies Act 1985. A Director shall declare his interest in the same manner if his duty conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company. Subject to such disclosure, a Director shall be entitled to vote in respect of any contract, arrangement or matter in which he is interested, directly or indirectly, or in which his duty conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company, and if he shall do so his vote shall be counted and he may be taken into account in ascertaining whether a quorum is present.

Appointment/Removal

5. The holder or holders of a majority in nominal value of such part of the issued share capital of the Company as confers the right for the time being to attend and vote at General Meetings may at any time and from time to time by memorandum in writing signed by or on behalf of such holder or holders appoint any person to be a Director or remove any Director (whether or not appointed under this Article 5) from office. Every such appointment or removal shall take effect upon receipt of the memorandum by the Secretary of the Company. In the case of a corporation it shall be sufficient if such memorandum is signed by a Director thereof or by any other officer or official duly authorised in that behalf.

Casual Vacancy

6. The Directors shall have power to appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors, subject to any maximum for the time being in force, and any Director so appointed shall hold office until he is removed or resigns.

Remuneration

7. The remuneration of each Director shall be such as shall be determined from time to time by the Directors. The Company shall not be obliged to pay the same rate of remuneration to each Director for his ordinary services as a Director. Any such remuneration shall be deemed to accrue from day to day.

NO ROTATION OF DIRECTORS

8. Directors shall remain continuously in office, without rotation, from the date of their appointment until their resignation or removal.

RESOLUTIONS IN WRITING

9. A resolution in writing signed by all the Directors entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Directors or of a committee of Directors shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of Directors or (as the case may be) a committee of Directors duly convened and held and may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more Directors; but a resolution signed by an Alternate Director entitled to sign the same under Article 3 need not also be signed by his appointor and, if it is signed by a Director who has appointed an Alternate Director, it need not be signed by the Alternate Director in that capacity.

ADVISORY DIRECTORS

10. Where the Board considers that the advice or assistance of any person would from special knowledge or for any other reason be beneficial to the Company the Board may at any time appoint such person to be an Extra or Advisory Director and may at any time revoke any such appointment. Subject to such power of revocation a person appointed an Extra or Advisory Director shall hold such office for such period not exceeding one year from his appointment as the Board shall fix on his appointment, and in default of any period being so fixed then for one year from his appointment. An Extra or Advisory Director vacating such office shall be eligible for re-appointment. The duties and remuneration of an Extra or Advisory Director shall be such as may be agreed between him and the Board. Any person so appointed shall not be a Director of the Company for any of the purposes of these Articles nor shall he have any powers of or be subject to any of the duties of a Director save in so far as specific powers or duties may be vested in or delegated to him by the Board pursuant to such agreement. An Extra or Advisory Director shall not be a member of the Board and shall not be entitled to be present at any meeting of the Board except at the request of the Board, and if present at such request he shall not be entitled to vote thereat.

The Board may from time to time appoint any manager or other person in the employment of the Company or of the Company's holding company or of any other subsidiary of the Company's holding company to be an Assistant Director of the Company. Any person so appointed shall not be a Director of the Company for any of the purposes of these Articles nor shall he have any powers of or be subject to any of the duties of a Director save in so far as specific powers or duties may be vested in or delegated to him by the Board. The appointment, removal and remuneration of an Assistant Director shall be determined by the Board. An Assistant Director shall not be entitled to receive notice of or attend at any Board Meeting unless invited to do so by the Board, and he shall not vote on any resolution proposed at a meeting of the Board.

MINUTES

12. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of all General Meetings of the Company and also of all appointments of officers, and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board, and of the attendances thereat, and all business transacted at such meetings; and any such minutes relating to any such meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of the meeting, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

LOCAL BOARDS

13. The Board may establish any divisional, departmental, regional or local boards, managing committees or agencies for managing any of the affairs of the Company, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint any persons (whether being Directors or not) to be members of such boards, agencies or committees and may appoint any such persons as aforesaid to be regional directors, local directors, managers or agents, and may fix the remuneration of any persons so appointed, and may delegate to any such board, managing committee, agency, regional director, local director, manager or agent any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in the Board, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the members of any such boards, agencies or managing committees, or any of them, to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such other terms and subject to such other conditions as the Board may think fit, and the Board may remove any person so appointed, and may revoke or vary any such delegation, but no person dealing in good faith and without notice of any such revocation or variation shall be affected thereby.

SECRECY

14. Every Director, trustee manager, auditory member of a committee, officer, agent, or employee of the Company shall be bound (and if required by the Directors shall before entering on his duties execute a declaration or contract pledging himself) to observe strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company, (including without limitation) transactions with customers and the state of customers' accounts, and all matters relating thereto and not to reveal any matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required to do so by the Directors or by a Court of Law or by the third party or parties to whom such matters relate or so far as may be necessary in the conduct of the business of the Company or in order to comply in any other way with any provisions of the Articles.

SECRETARY

15. Each holder for the time being of the office of Secretary, Deputy Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the ultimate holding company of the Company, and each person appointed for the time being to perform the duties of any such office, whether in place of the holder thereof or under circumstances where there is no holder thereof, shall, for so long as he is such holder or so appointed, be also the Secretary, the Deputy Secretary and Assistant Secretary, respectively, of the Company, unless otherwise determined by the Directors.
