Registered No. 2232818

BPB SENIOR EXECUTIVE PENSION TRUSTEES LTD DIRECTORS' REPORT FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 1998

Activities

The activities of the Company have been related solely to the exercise of the office of corporate trustee of the BPB Senior Executive Pension Scheme and the BPB Life Assurance Top-Up Scheme.

No fees were received nor expenses paid in respect of these trusteeship activities.

Directors

The directors of the Company during the year were:

Mr B C Hines (Chairman)

Mr J G Colley

Mr J S Goodall

Mr J Purcell-O'Dwyer

Mr C G Young (Appointed 1 October 1997)

On 30 June 1998, Mr J Purcell-O'Dwyer resigned as a director and Mr F Mougin was appointed a director.

Directors' Share Interests

The interests of those directors who were directors of the Company at the year-end in shares of BPB plc (the Company's holding company) were as shown below; the figures in round brackets indicate shares for which options were held under that company's share option schemes and the figures in square brackets indicate matched shares awarded under BPB's share matching plan.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES for the preparation of accounts

The directors are required by company law to prepare accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of each financial year and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. They are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing these accounts on a going concern basis, the directors have ensured that appropriate accounting policies have been used and been applied consistently, that applicable accounting standards have been followed and that reasonable and prudent judgements have been made.

AUDITORS' REPORT to the members of BPB Senior Executive Pension Trustees Ltd

We have audited the annexed balance sheet which has been prepared under the historical cost convention and on the basis of the accounting policies set out therein.

Respective Responsibilities of Directors and Auditors

As described above, the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those accounts and to report our opinion to shareholders.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the accounts. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the accounts, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances, are consistently applied and are adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the accounts are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the accounts.

Opinion

In our opinion the annexed balance sheet gives a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 1998 and has been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
