Financial instruments

Classification

The company holds the following financial instruments:

- Short term other debtors and creditors;
- Cash and bank balances.

All financial instruments are classified as basic.

Recognition and measurement

The company has chosen to apply the recognition and measurement principles in FRS102.

Financial instruments are recognised when the company becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and derecognised when in the case of assets, the contractual rights to cash flows from the assets expire or substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to another party, or in the case of liabilities, when the company's obligations are discharged, expire or are cancelled.

Such instruments are initially measured at transaction price, including transaction costs, and are subsequently carried at the undiscounted amount of the cash or other consideration expected to be paid or received, after taking account of impairment adjustments.

3 Creditors

Creditors: amounts falling due within one year

	2019 £	2018 £
Due within one year
Other creditors	520,741	227,290

At the balance sheet date the company bank account contained £520,741 (2018: £227,290) which is held on trust for the leaseholders under Section 42 of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987. The amount is shown as a creditor due within one year.
