Turnover policy

There was no turnover in the year since the company had ceased to trade

Intangible assets amortisation policy

The value of the intangible fixed assets were restated following the cessation of trading. Since in the intervening time there has been no new investment nor an opportunity to dispose of the assets, the directors are unable to predict the adequateness or otherwise of the provisions made in the year to 31 March 1996 intended to write these assets down to a likely value of disposal. No further depreciation has been provided in these accounts.
