Charge

Alter a

- The Owner, as a continuing security for the payment on demand of the Owner's Obligations and with full title guarantee:
- 2.1 charges to the Security Agent all legal interest in the Property, by way of legal mortgage; and
- 2.2 gives to the Security Agent a fixed charge over any of the following property of the Owner, whether owned now or in the future:
- 2.2.1 any other interest in the Property.
- 2.2.2 all rents receivable from any lease granted of the Property.
- 2.2.3 all the goodwill of the Owner's business carried on at the Property.
- 2.2.4 the proceeds of any insurance affecting the Property; and
- 2.2.5 where the Owner is a company:
  - 2.5.1. all fixtures and fittings not forming part of the Property;
  - 2.5.2. all plant and machinery at the Property, including any associated warranties and maintenance contracts; and
  - 2.5.3. all furniture, furnishings, equipment, tools and other goods kept at the Property, that are not regularly disposed of in the ordinary course of business.
- 3. Restrictions

The Owner will not, without the Security Agent's consent:

- 3.1 permit or create any mortgage, charge or lien on the Property.
- 3.2 dispose of the Property.
- 3.3 grant, or accept a surrender of, any lease or licence of the Property or consent to a tenant assigning or sub-letting; or
- 3.4 part with or share possession or occupation of the Property.
  - Land Registry

The Owner and the Security Agent apply to the Land Registry to enter a restriction that "no disposition of the registered estate by the proprietor of the registered estate is to be registered without a written consent signed by the proprietor for the time being of the charge dated { date } in favour of the Security Agent referred to in the charges register. The Security Agent may also register any priority arrangements at the Land Registry which will then be publicly available.

- Property Undertakings
- The Owner will:
- 5.1 permit the Security Agent at any time to inspect the Property;
- 5.2 keep all Property of an insurable nature comprehensively insured (including if requested by the Security Agent, terrorism cover) to the Security Agent's reasonable satisfaction for its full reinstatement cost. In default, the Security Agent may arrange insurance at the Owner's expense:

75254089-1

Å.

5.3 hold on trust for the Security Agent all proceeds of any insurance of the Property. At the Security Agent's option, the Owner will apply the proceeds in making good the relevant loss or damage, or to reduce the Owner's Obligations;

- 5.4 where required by the Security Agent, deposit with the Security Agent all insurance policies (or copies where the Security Agent agrees), and all deeds and documents of title relating to the Property;
- 5.5 keep the Property in good condition;

5.6 not, without the Security Agent's consent, carry out any development on or make any alterations to the Property which require planning permission or approval under building regulations; and

- 5.7 If the Property is leasehold, comply with the terms of the lease and immediately inform the Security Agent if any notice is received from the lessor relating to any actual or suggested breach of the lease or threatening action or proceedings for possession or to forfeit the lease.
- 6. Possession and Exercise of Powers

6.1 The Security Agent does not have an immediate right to possession of the Property or its income (and will not be considered to be taking possession if it enters to inspect or repair the Property). The Owner will continue in possession until the Security Agent takes possession.

- 6.2 If any Secured Party (or the Security Agent on its behalf) makes a demand, the Security Agent may then take possession or exercise any of its other powers without further delay.
- 6.3 Any purchaser or third party dealing with the Security Agent or a receiver may assume that the Security Agent's powers have arisen and are exercisable without proof that demand has been made.
- 6.4 The Security Agent will not be liable to account to the Owner for any money not actually received by the Security Agent.
- 7. Appointment of Receiver

The Security Agent may appoint or remove a receiver or receivers of the Property. If the Security Agent appoints a receiver, the Security Agent may fix and pay the receiver's fees and expenses. The receiver will be the Owner's agent and the Owner (and not the Security Agent) will be responsible for the acts, defaults and remuneration of the receiver.

- 8. Powers of the Security Agent and Receivers
- 8.1 The Security Agent or any receiver may:
- 8.1.1 carry on the Owner's business that is conducted at the Property;
- 8.1.2 enter, take possession of, and/or generally manage the Property;
- 8.1.3 complete any unfinished works or carry out any new works of building, reconstruction, maintenance or repair on the Property;
- 8.1.4 purchase any land or other property and purchase, grant or release any interest in or right over land, or the benefit of any covenants affecting any land. References to land or Property include land or other property that is purchased by the Security Agent or a receiver under this power;
- 8.1.5 sell, lease, surrender or accept surrenders of leases, charge or deal with the Property without restriction, including disposing of any fixtures separately;

complete any transactions by executing any deeds or documents in the name of the Owner; 8.1.6 8.1.7 take, continue or defend any proceedings and enter into any arrangement or compromise; insure the Property and any works, arrange indemnity and other similar insurance, and obtain 8.1.8 bonds and give counter-indemnities and other security in connection with this; 8.1.9 employ advisers, consultants, managers, agents, workmen and others; 8.1.10 purchase or acquire materials, tools, equipment, furnishing, goods or supplies; and 8.1.11 do any acts which the Security Agent or a receiver considers to be incidental or beneficial to the exercise of their powers. A receiver may borrow and secure the repayment of any money, in priority to the Owner's 8.2 Obligations. 8.3 Joint receivers may exercise their powers jointly or separately. 8,4 A receiver will first apply any money received from the Property towards the repayment of all money that the receiver has borrowed and secondly in payment of the receiver's fees and expenses. The receiver will then apply any remaining money received as required by law. 8.5 The Security Agent may exercise any of its powers even if a receiver has been appointed. The receiver may dispose of any of the Owner's assets (not charged by this deed) that are at 8.6 the Property. If the receiver sells any of the Owner's assets using this power, it will pay the proceeds to the Security Agent, after the deduction of any fees or expenses incurred in the sale. The proceeds received by the Security Agent will be a debt owed by the Security Agent to the Owner. 8.7 The Security Agent (in its capacity as such) may set off any amount due from the Owner against any amount owed by the Security Agent (in its capacity as such) to the Owner. The Security Agent may exercise this right, without prior notice, both before and after demand. For this purpose, the Security Agent may convert an amount in one currency to another, using its market rate of exchange at the relevant time. Any credit balance with a Secured Party will not be repayable, or capable of being disposed of, 8.8 charged or dealt with by the Owner, until the Owner's Obligations, both before and after demand, have been paid in full. The Security Agent (or any Secured Party) allowing the Owner to make withdrawals will not walve this restriction. §. . Application of Payments 9.1 The Security Agent may apply any payments received for the Owner to reduce any of the Owner's Obligations, as the Security Agent decides. 5.8 If the Security Agent and/or any other Secured Party receives notice of any charge or other interest affecting the Property, the Security Agent or, as applicable, that Secured Party, may suspend the operation of the Owner's account(s) and open a new account or accounts. Regardless of whether the Security Agent or that Secured Party suspends the account(s), any payments received by the Security Agent or that Secured Party for the Owner after the date of that notice will be applied first to repay the Owner's Obligations arising after that date.

10. Preservation of Other Security and Rights and Further Assurance

10.1 This deed is in addition to any other security or guarantee for the Owner's Obligations held by the Security Agent and/or any Secured Party now or in the future. The Security Agent may consolidate this deed with any other security so that they have to be redeemed together, but it will not merge with or prejudice any other security or guarantee or any of the Security Agent's other rights.

10.2 On request, the Owner will execute any deed or document, or take any other action required by the Security Agent, to perfect or enhance the Secured Parties' security under this deed.

11. Power of Attorney

To give effect to this deed and secure the exercise of any of their powers, the Owner irrevocably appoints the Security Agent, and separately any receiver, to be the Owner's attorney (with full power of substitution and delegation), in the Owner's name to sign or execute any documents, deeds and other instruments, or take, continue or defend any proceedings.

- 12. More than One Owner (Including Partnerships)
- 12.1 Where the Owner is more than one person (including the partners of a partnership):
  - 12.1.1 the Owner's Obligations include their joint and several liabilities. References to the Owner are to them together and separately;and
  - 12.1.2 if an Owner (who is an individual) dies, this deed will remain a continuing security and, in relation to any Obligations incurred after the date of death, references to Owner mean the surviving Owner(s).
- 12.2 Where the Owner is a partnership, the Owner's liability will not be affected and the deed will remain a continuing security if a partner dies, or leaves or joins the partnership, if the partnership dissolves, or if there is a change in the name or constitution of the partnership. The Owner's Obligations are those of the partners in the partnership present and future which relate to the partnership business.
- 13. Consents, Notices and Demands
- 13.1 All consents, notices and demands must be in writing.
- 13:2 The Security Agent may deliver a notice or demand to the Owner: 13.2.1 at the contact details last known to the Security Agent;

13.2.2 if the Owner is a company, at its registered office; and

13.2.3 if the Owner is not resident (if an individual or partnership) or not incorporated (if a company) in England and Wales, at the Address for Service.

- 13.3 A notice or demand signed by an official of the Security Agent will be effective at the time of personal delivery; on the second business day after posting; or, if by fax, at the time of sending, if sent before 6.00 p.m. on a business day, or otherwise on the next business day. A business day is a weekday other than a national holiday.
- 13.4 A notice from the Owner to the Security Agent will be effective on receipt.
- 14. Miscellaneous
- 14.1 The rights of the Security Agent and the security granted by the Owner under this deed are held by the Security Agent on trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and are subject to the terms
