Subsequent to the year-end, on 14 February 2002 L T Shafe resigned as a director of the company.

Directors' interests

No director had any beneficial interest in the shares of the company during the year.

Details of the directors' interests in the shares of the ultimate parent company, Intelligent Environments Group plc, are disclosed in the financial statements of that company.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

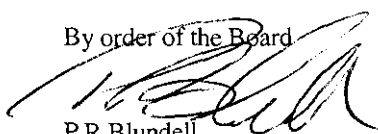

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The company has been dormant throughout the financial year. In accordance with Section 250 of the Companies Act 1985 (as amended by Section 14 of the Companies Act 1989) the company has resolved not to appoint auditors.

By order of the Board
