NATWEST CAPITAL FINANCE LIMITED

DIRECTORS' REPORT

The directors present their annual report and the audited financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2004.

ACTIVITIES AND BUSINESS REVIEW

The principal activity of the company is the provision of fixed asset finance usually involving individually structured facilities.

The accumulated loss for the period was £49,000 (2002: retained profit £177,000) and this was transferred to reserves. The directors recommend that an interim dividend of £1,000,000 be paid (2002: £500,000).

On 30 July 2004, finance lease receivables were terminated with a net book value of £78,610,000. The termination resulted in a pre-tax profit of £6,634,000 and a tax charge of £6,634,000.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

United Kingdom company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

POLICY AND PRACTICE ON PAYMENT OF CREDITORS

The company follows the policy and practice on payment of creditors determined by The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc, as outlined below.

In the year ending 31 March 2005, the Group will adhere to the following payment policy in respect of all suppliers. The Group is committed to maintaining a sound commercial relationship with its suppliers. Consequently, it is the Group's policy to negotiate and agree terms and conditions with its suppliers, which includes the giving of an undertaking to pay suppliers within 30 days of receipt of a correctly prepared invoice submitted in accordance with the terms of the contract or such other payment period as may be agreed.

The proportion which the amount owed to trade creditors at 31 March 2004 bears to the amounts invoiced by suppliers during the year then ended equated to nil days proportion of 365 days (2003: nil days).

ELECTIVE RESOLUTIONS

Elective Resolutions electing to dispense with the requirement to hold annual general meetings, lay accounts before a general meeting and re-appointment of auditors annually were passed on 10 August 1999.

AUDITORS

On 1 August 2003, Deloitte & Touche, the Company's auditors transferred their business to Deloitte & Touche LLP, a limited liability partnership incorporated under the Limited Liability Partnership Act 2000. The Company's consent has been given to treating the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as extending to Deloitte & Touche LLP with effect from 21 August 2003 under the provisions of Section 26(5) of the Companies Act 1989.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF NATWEST CAPITAL FINANCE LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Natwest Capital Finance Limited for the year ended 31 March 2004 which comprise the profit and loss account, the balance sheet, and related notes 1 to 16. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described in the directors' report, the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards. Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant United Kingdom legal and regulatory requirements and auditing standards.

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report if, in our opinion, the directors' report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and transactions with the company is not disclosed.

We read the directors' report for the above year and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with United Kingdom auditing standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs at 31 March 2004 and of its profit for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.

NATWEST CAPITAL FINANCE LIMITED

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements on pages 6 to 13 are prepared on the basis of the principal accounting policies adopted by the Company described below and applicable United Kingdom Accounting Standards. Accounting policies have been applied consistently, and in compliance with the UK leasing SORP.

a ACCOUNTING CONVENTION

The financial statements of the Company are prepared under the historical cost convention. In accordance with the Companies Act 1985, the Directors have adapted the prescribed formats of the financial statements as required by the special nature of the business.

b GROSS EARNINGS UNDER FINANCE LEASES

Gross earnings under finance leases are recognised according to the actuarial after tax method whereby pre tax and post tax profits are allocated to accounting periods so as to give a constant periodic rate of return on the net cash investment.

c DEFERRED TAXATION

Certain items of income and expenditure are accounted for in different periods for financial reporting purposes than for taxation purposes. Deferred taxation is provided on the full liability method in respect of timing differences which have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date. Deferred taxation is calculated on a non-discounted basis.

d AMOUNTS RECEIVABLE UNDER FINANCE LEASES

Finance lease receivables are stated in the balance sheet at the amount of the net investment in the leases. Progress payments made prior to the commencement of the primary lease are included at cost together with the amount of any interest charged on such payments.

e CASH FLOW STATEMENT

The company is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc and is included in the consolidated financial statements of The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc, which are publicly available. Consequently, the Company has taken advantage of the exemption from preparing a cash flow statement under the terms of Financial Reporting Standard 1 (revised).

2 2003 COMPARATIVE RESULTS

The directors have reviewed the ordering of the items in the profit and loss account and have adapted the format for 2004 results, as they consider this to be more representative of best practice. Comparative results for 2003 have been reordered accordingly.

NATWEST CAPITAL FINANCE LIMITED
