ADDITIONAL INFORMATION RE DIRECTORS

Other than as disclosed in the notes to the financial statements no director had a contract or was materially interested in any significant contract with the company at any time during the year.

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In determining how amounts are presented within items in the profit and loss account and balance sheet, the directors have had regard to the substance of the reported transaction or arrangement, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or practice.

So far as each of the directors is aware at the time the report is approved

there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware, and the directors have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information (s 234ZA (2))

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF POINTING CHEMICALS LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements of Pointing Chemicals Limited for the year ended 31 December 2006 set out on pages 5 to 8. These financial statements have been prepared under the accounting policies set out therein.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND AUDITORS

As described in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you whether in our opinion the information given in the Directors' Report is consistent with the financial statements.

In addition we report to you if, in our opinion, the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and other transactions is not disclosed.

We read the Directors' Report and consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements within it.

BASIS OF AUDIT OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgments made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

POINTING CHEMICALS LIMITED

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards

1.2 Cash flow

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from the requirement to produce a cash flow statement on the grounds that it is a small company

1.3 Pensions

The company participated in a funded defined benefit scheme, which required contributions to be made to separately administered funds. Contributions to these funds were charged to the profit and loss account so as to spread the cost of pensions over the employees' working lives. Variations in pension cost, which were identified as a result of actuarial valuations, were spread over the average remaining working lives of employees.

Differences between the amounts funded and the amounts charged to the profit and loss account were shown as either provisions or prepayments in the balance sheet

2 OPERATING PROFIT

During the year, no director received any emoluments (2005 - £nil). Auditors remuneration was paid by the company's parent company Pointing Holdings Limited

3 PENSION COMMITMENTS

The company no longer includes disclosure of The Pointing Limited Pension Fund within the financial statements as it no longer has any employees and therefore no active members. The directors understand that any deficit on the scheme is to be met by its parent company Pointing Holding Limited who would make payments on behalf of the principal employer Pointing Limited. For further information and full FRS17 disclosure, see financial statements of Pointing Holding Limited or Pointing Limited

8 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The exemption granted by Financial Reporting Standard No 8 "Related Party Disclosures" not to disclose transactions and balances with other group companies where 90% or more of the voting rights are controlled within the group has been used in preparing these accounts

9 ULTIMATE PARENT UNDERTAKING AND CONTROLLING PARTY

In the opinion of the directors, the company's ultimate parent company and ultimate controlling party is Sensient Technologies Corporation, a company incorporated in the United States of America. This is the parent undertaking of the largest group for which group accounts are prepared. The parent undertaking and the penultimate controlling party is Sensient Holdings UK (formerly Sensient Technologies (UK) Limited), a company registered in England and Wales.

Copies of the group financial statements of Sensient Technologies Corporation are filed at the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington DC. Copies of the group financial statements of Sensient Holdings UK Limited are available from Companies House, Crown Way, Cardiff, CF4 3UZ.
