NOTES

- 1 The original instrument (if any) creating or evidencing the charge, together with these prescribed particulars correctly completed must be delivered to the Registrar of Companies within 21 days after the date of creation of the charge (section 395). If the property is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom delivery to the Registrar must be effected within 21 days after the date on which the instrument could in due course of post, and if dispatched with due diligence, have been received in the United Kingdom (section 398). A copy of the instrument creating the charge will be accepted where the property charged is situated and the charge was created outside the United Kingdom (section 398) and in such cases the copy must be verified to be a correct copy either by the company or by the person who has delivered or sent the copy to the Registrar. The verification must be signed by or on behalf of the person giving the verification and where this is given by a body corporate it must be signed by an officer of that body. A verified copy will also be accepted where section 398(4) applies (property situate in Scotland or Northern Ireland) and Form No. 398 is submitted.
- 2 A description of the instrument, eg "Trust Deed", "Debenture", "Mortgage" or "Legal charge", etc, as the case may be, should be given.
- 3 In this section there should be inserted the amount or rate per cent. of the commission, allowance or discount (if any) paid or made either directly or indirectly by the company to any person in consideration of his;
 - (a) subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, or
 - (b) procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional,for any of the debentures included in this return. The rate of interest payable under the terms of the debentures should not be entered.
- 4 If any of the spaces in this form provide insufficient space the particulars must be entered on the prescribed continuation sheet.

SCHEDULE 2

SHORT PARTICULARS OF THE PROPERTY MORTGAGED OR CHARGED

Floating charge

Pursuant to Clause 2.1 of the Floating Charge Deed, the Company with full title guarantee (and to the intent that the security so constituted would be a continuing security in favour of the Security Trustee (as agent and trustee for the Beneficiaries)) charged in favour of the Security Trustee (as agent and trustee for the Beneficiaries) by way of first floating charge as security for the payment and discharge of the relevant Obligations, all present and future assets and undertaking of the Company.

Unrestricted dealings

Pursuant to Clause 2.2 of the Floating Charge Deed, and without prejudice to any other provision in the relevant FT Finance Documents, the Company may, at any time when an Enforcement Event in relation to it is not subsisting and the Company is not in liquidation, without the consent of the Security Trustee:

- (a) dispose of or deal with any of the Unrelated Assets; or
- (b) create, permit or acquire any Security which affects any of the Unrelated Assets (except that the Company will not, without the Security Trustee's prior written consent, create, permit or acquire any Security which could result, whether directly or in certain events, in a person or group of persons other than the Security Trustee holding one or more fixed and floating, or floating Security, over the whole or substantially the whole of the assets and undertaking of the Company or which would enable that person or group of persons to appoint an administrative receiver in respect of the Company), in such a manner as the Company considers fit.

Priority of floating charge

Without limiting Clause 4 (Enforcement) of the Floating Charge Deed, any present or future FT Dedicated Security created by the Company over all or any of the Unrelated Assets in favour of a Beneficiary (whether fixed or floating Security) will rank as to priority ahead of this floating charge in relation to the Unrelated Assets concerned and the Security Trustee will promptly, at the request and cost of the Company, enter into a priorities agreement with any such third party to give effect to Clause 2.3 of the Floating Charge Deed.
