Directors' report

The directors present their annual report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2012

Principal activity, business review and future developments

At 31 December 2012 the company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Aegis Group plc. The Company did not trade during the year. As a result, these financial statements are prepared on a basis other than going concern. Following the completion of the sale of the Aegis Group plc shares to Dentsu Inc on 26 March 2013 the ultimate parent company is Dentsu Inc. Aegis Group plc has been renamed to Dentsu Aegis Network Ltd.

There have been no significant events since the balance sheet date that require adjustment to, or disclosure in the financial statements.

The company's directors believe that further key performance indicators for the company are not necessary or appropriate for an understanding of the development, performance or position of the business.

Results and dividend

The profit on ordinary activities after taxation for the year was £Nil (2011: £Nil). The directors do not recommend the payment of a final ordinary dividend (2011: £Nil).

Financial risk

The directors consider that the only significant financial risk to the company is credit default risk in relation to the intercompany receivable. The directors consider the risk of credit default to be remote.

The company does not use derivative financial instruments.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
