Principal activities and business review

The Company trades as a property-holding company and it is intended that it shall continue to do so.

Dividends

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend.

Directors and directors' interests

The directors who held office during the year, none of whom was beneficially interested in the Company's share during the year, were

C R Chapman

M G Rogers (resigned 15th July 1996) A J T Pilgrim (resigned 5th June 1995)

The interests of the directors in the share capital of Nestor-BNA plc, the ultimate holding company are disclosed in the financial statements of Nestor-BNA plc.

Registered Office

The directors resolved to change the registered office of the Company to The Colonnades, Beaconsfield Close, Hatfield, Hertfordshire AL10 8YD on 13 June 1996.

Statement of Director's Responsibilities

The directors are required by UK company law to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and far view of the statement of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss for the year to that date. In preparing the financial statements, which should be on a going concern basis, the directors are required:

- to maintain adequate accounting records, to safeguard the assets of the Company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities;
- to apply suitable accounting policies in a consistent manner and make reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates where necessary;
- to comply with all applicable accounting standards.

The directors confirm that these financial statements comply with these requirements.

Auditors

The Company has dispensed with the obligation to appoint auditors annually, hence Coopers & Lybrand will continue in office.

Approved by the Board of Directors on 2018 OLAL 1986

and signed on its behalf by:

Report of the Auditors to the members of Notepike Limited

We have audited the financial statements on pages 3 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of Directors and Auditors

As described on page 1, the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion, we also evaluated the overall adequacy, of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at 31st December 1995 and of its loss for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
