- Without prejudice to the Company's rights under the 2006 Act to agree shorter notice periods in respect thereof a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least fourteen Clear Days' notice
- The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If any such resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution, the notice shall contain a statement to that effect.

- The notice shall be given to all the Members, the Directors and the auditors and shall set out the resolutions to be proposed at the meeting
- Every notice convening a general meeting shall comply with the provisions of the 2006 Act as to giving information to any member in regard to their right to appoint proxies
- The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting

7 PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Members entitled to exercise 20% of the total voting rights of all the Members (whether present in person, by proxy, or represented through a duly authorised representative) shall constitute a quorum
- If such a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same date in the next week at the same time and place (or such other time and place as the Directors may determine and notify to the Members). However, so long as a quorum is present at the time appointed for the meeting or within half an hour from such time, the Members present may transact or continue to transact business even though a quorum ceases to be present.
- 7 3 The Chair (or, in his absence, the Vice-Chair) shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the Chair nor the Vice-Chair are present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or neither is willing to act as chairman, the Members present may elect any Member to chair the meeting
- The chairman of a general meeting may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.
- A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. A poll may be demanded before a show of hands is held. Subject to the provisions of the 2006 Act a poll may be demanded by
 - 7 5 1 the chairman of the meeting,
 - 7 5 2 a Member or Members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting, or

- 7 5 3 any Member, where the resolution concerns the election or removal from office of any Director by any Member
- Unless a poll is duly demanded, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution
- 7 7 The demand for a poll may, before the poll is taken, be withdrawn but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting, and a demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made
- A poll shall be taken as the chairman of the meeting directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The chairman of the meeting may in his absolute discretion direct that a poll be conducted either by secret ballot (in which case voting papers are to be returned anonymously) or by open ballot (in which case voting papers are to be returned indicating the identity of the voting Member). For the avoidance of doubt and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing sentences, save in the case of a poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, the chairman of the meeting may direct that a poll be taken by sending voting papers to the Members to be returned by post to the Office or to some other place. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of a meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- In the case of an equality of votes (whether on a show of hands or on a poli) the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have
- A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place as the chairman of the meeting directs (being not more than thirty days after the poll is demanded), or by post (provided that voting papers are sent to Members not more than thirty days after a poll is demanded requiring returns within fourteen days of delivery or deemed delivery of voting papers to Members in accordance with the Articles). The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll was demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 7 11 No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven Clear Days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken

A resolution in writing Executed by or on behalf of each Member who would have been entitled to vote upon it if it had been proposed at a general meeting at which that Member was present shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in like form each Executed by or on behalf of one or more Members

8 VOTING RIGHTS

- On a show of hands or on a poll every Member present in person or by proxy, or by a duly authorised representative, or (where voting papers are sent to Members to be returned by post) by every Member returning such a voting paper to the Office (or other place directed by the chairman of the meeting)) shall have one vote for each hotel that the Member owns, operates or manages and which benefits from marketing services provided by the Company under the terms of the Membership Agreement

- No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting (or adjourned meeting) at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting (or adjourned meeting), whose decision as to whether the vote will be allowed shall be final and binding
- An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and Executed by or on behalf of the appointor, and shall be in the following form (or in a form as near thereto as circumstances allow or in any other form which is usual or which the Directors may approve)
