Directors Responsibilities in Relation to Financial Statements

The financial statements are prepared in the format required by the Companies Act 1985 (as amended by the Companies Act 1989). They take advantage of the new procedures for unaudited accounts for small businesses. Schedules 4, 5, 6, and 8 of the Companies Act apply.

a) For the year in question the company was entitled to exemption under subsection (1) of section 249A of the Companies Act 1985.

b) No notice has been deposited under subsection (2) of section 249B.

c) The Directors acknowledge their responsibilities for:

i) Ensuring that the company keeps proper accounting records which comply with section 221, and

ii) Preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit and loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company.

The Directors consider that in preparing the attached financial statements, the Company has used appropriate accounting policies consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates and that all accounting standards which they consider to be applicable have been followed.

The Directors have responsibility for ensuring that the Company keeps accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Company and which enables them to ensure that financial statements comply with the Companies Acts.

The Directors have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the Group and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
