Directors' report

The directors present their report and the financial statements of BBC World Service Television Limited for the year ended 31 March 2010

Principal activities and business review

The Company was incorporated on 13 March 1991. The Company did not trade during the year to 31 March 2010 or the prior year.

The Company is exempt, by virtue of its size, from the requirement to prepare an enhanced business review.

Results and dividends

The directors do not recommend the payment of a dividend (2009: £nil). No profit or loss was recorded in the year (2009: £nil).

Directors

The directors who held office during the year were as follows:

Sarah Cooper

Neil Chugani (resigned 17 June 2010)

James Stevenson resigned as Company Secretary on 30 April 2009 and was succeeded by Anthony Corriette on 15 October 2010.

Donations

The Company did not make any political or charitable donations during the year (2009: £nil).

Going concern

After making enquiries, the directors have a reasonable expectation that the business has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, and accordingly the going concern basis continues to be adopted in the preparation of the accounts.

Directors' interests and indemnities

No director had any interest in the share capital of BBC World Service Television Limited at 1 April 2009 or 31 March 2010. No rights to subscribe for shares in or debentures of the Company were granted to any of the directors or their immediate families, or exercised by them, during the financial year. Each director is covered by directors' and officers' insurance in place throughout the financial year as appropriate under the BBC group scheme.

By order of the Board,

Anthony Corriette
Company Secretary
3 December 2010

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the directors' report and the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law they have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with UK Accounting Standards and applicable law (UK Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that its financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the Company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

The Company was dormant, within the meaning of Section 480 of The Companies Act 2006, throughout the financial year

The directors

(a) confirm that the Company was entitled to exemption under subsection (1) of section 475 of the Companies Act 2006 from the requirement to have its accounts for the financial year ended 31 March 2010 audited

(b) confirm that members have not required the Company to obtain an audit of its accounts for that financial year in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 476 of that Act

(c) acknowledge their responsibilities for

(i) ensuring that the Company keeps accounting records which comply with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, and

(ii) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of its profit or loss for the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 394 of that Act, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of that Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the Company

These financial statements were approved by the board of directors on 3 December 2010 and were signed on its behalf by

Sarah Cooper
Director

Notes to the financial statements
