The purpose of the Company is to act as a vehicle for the protection of the integrity of the "J Rothschild" name. With this aim the Company has subscribed special shares in companies using, or owning other companies using, the "J Rothschild" name. Such special shares confer upon the Company power to change the names of the companies concerned to exclude the words "J Rothschild" if the Directors of the Company were to consider that it was necessary to do so in order to protect the integrity of the "J Rothschild" name.

Nameco Alternate 1 Limited

Directors' responsibilities

Company Law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company at the balance sheet date and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently, make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent and prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
