DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the Directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

For the year in question, the Company was entitled to exemptions from audit under section 249A (1) of the Companies Act 1985. No notice has been deposited under section 249B (2) of the Act in relation to the accounts for the financial year. The Directors have acknowledged their responsibility for

- a) ensuring the Company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Companies Act 1985; and
- b) preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company, as at the end of the financial year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the Companies Act 1985, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Act relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the Company.

The Directors have taken advantage of special exemptions conferred by Schedule 8 of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies on the grounds that, in their opinion, the Company is entitled to those exemptions.

The notes on pages 6 and 7 form a part of these financial statements.
