17 2 Interpretation

A reference in the articles to a "conflict of interest" includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties

17 3 Authorisation in accordance with Companies Act 2006

An authorisation referred to in article 17 1 is effective only if it is given in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

17 4 Authorisation by written resolution

In the case of an authorisation given by resolution in writing

- (a) the resolution must be signed by all the directors, and
- (b) the number of directors that sign the resolution (disregarding the director in question and any other director who has a direct or indirect interest in the matter being authorised) must be not less than the number required to form a quorum

17 5 Directors may prescribe terms of authorisation

The directors may

- (a) authorise a matter pursuant to article 17 1 on such terms and for such duration, or impose such limits or conditions on it, as they may decide, and
- (b) vary the terms or duration of such an authorisation (including any limits or conditions imposed on it) or revoke it

17 6 Examples of terms of authorisation

Any terms, limits or conditions imposed by the directors in respect of their authorisation of a director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) may provide that:

- (a) if the relevant director has (other than through his or her position as director) information in relation to the relevant matter in respect of which he or she owes a duty of confidentiality to another person, he or she is not obliged to disclose that information to the company or to use or apply it in performing his or her duties as a director,
- (b) the director is to be excluded from discussions in relation to the relevant matter whether at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors or otherwise,
- (c) the director is not to be given any documents or other information in relation to the relevant matter, and
- (d) the director may or may not vote (or may or may not be counted in the quorum) at a meeting of the directors or any committee of directors in relation to any resolution relating to the relevant matter

17 7 No infringement of duty

A director does not infringe any duty which he or she owes to the company by virtue of ss171 to 177 Companies Act 2006 if that director acts in accordance with such terms, limits and conditions (if any) as the directors impose in respect of their authorisation of that director's conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest (whether given pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise)

18 ACCOUNTABILITY OF REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

18 1 Directors permitted to retain benefits from situational conflicts

A director is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with a relationship involving a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest which has been authorised by the directors (whether pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting (subject in each case to any terms, limits or conditions attaching to that authorisation)

18 2 Directors permitted to retain benefits from transactional conflicts

If a director has disclosed to the directors the nature and extent of his or her interest (to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006) he or she is not required, by reason of being a director (or because of the fiduciary relationship established by reason of being a director), to account to the company for any remuneration or other benefit which he or she derives from or in connection with

- (a) being a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the company or in which the company is interested or a body corporate in which the company is interested,
- (b) acting (otherwise than as auditor) alone or through his or her organisation in a professional capacity for the company (and that director or his or her organisation is entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director), or

- (c) being a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested in, the company's subsidiaries or any other body corporate in which the company is interested

18 3 No breach of statutory duty not to accept benefits from third parties

A director's receipt of any remuneration or other benefit referred to in articles 18 1 or 18 2 does not constitute an infringement of his or her duty under s176 Companies Act 2006

18 4 Transaction not liable to be avoided

A transaction or arrangement referred to in articles 18 1 or 18 2 is not liable to be avoided on the ground of any remuneration, benefit or interest referred to those articles

19 MEETINGS AND CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

19 1 Participation of interested directors

If a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company in which a director is interested then

- (a) provided the director has declared the nature and extent of his or her interest to the other directors to the extent required by the Companies Act 2006, and
- (b) subject to the terms imposed by any authorisation given by the directors (whether pursuant to article 17 1 or otherwise) or by the company in general meeting that director is to be counted as participating in that meeting, or part of a meeting, for quorum purposes and he or she may vote at that meeting or part of a meeting

19 2 Interpretation

For the purposes of this article

- (a) an interest of a person who is, for any purpose of the Companies Act 2006, "connected with" (within the meaning of s252 Companies Act 2006) a director is to be treated as an interest of the director, and
- (b) in relation to an alternate director, an interest of his or her appointor is to be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise and without prejudice to his or her ability to vote in relation to that transaction or arrangement on behalf of another appointor who does not have such an interest

19 3 Chairman's rulings

Subject to article 19 4, if a question arises at a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chairman is to be final and conclusive

19 4 Questions regarding the chairman

If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) arises in respect of the chairman, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the chairman is not counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes

19 5 Directors voting on appointments

If it is proposed to appoint two or more directors to offices or employments with the company or with any body corporate in which the company is interested or to fix or vary the terms of those appointments, the proposals must be divided and considered in relation to each director separately. In that case, each of those directors (if not precluded from voting for another reason) may vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except the resolution which relates to that director

20 PROPOSING DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

20 1 Proposal by a director

Any director may propose a directors' written resolution

20 2 Proposal by the company secretary

20 5 Written notice to each director

Notice of a proposed directors' written resolution must be given in writing to each director

20 6 Adoption process

Any decision which a person giving notice of a proposed directors' written resolution takes regarding the process of adopting that resolution must be taken reasonably in good faith

21 ADOPTION OF DIRECTORS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

54 8 A proxy's obligations to vote

The company is entitled to assume without enquiry that a proxy has complied with any obligation to vote in accordance with instructions given by the member by whom the proxy is appointed. ## 58 3 Proxy voting

Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

58 4 Ancillary rights of proxies

Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as

- (a) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and
- (b) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself

59 DELIVERY OF PROXY NOTICES

59 1 Proxy notification address

A notice of a general meeting must specify the address or addresses (each a "proxy notification address") at which the company will receive proxy notices relating to that meeting, or any adjournment of it, delivered in hard copy or (unless the directors decide otherwise in relation to a specific general meeting) electronic form

59 2 Rights of appointor

60 3 Chairman's decisions

If the chairman of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chairman's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution
