DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES IN RESPECT OF THE PREPARATION OF ACCOUNTS

Company law requires the Director to prepare accounts for each financial year or period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company at the end of the accounting year and of the profit or loss of the Company for the year. In preparing those accounts the Director is required to -

- * select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- * make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- * state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- * prepare the accounts on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business

The Director is also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and to enable her to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. She is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

SMALL COMPANIES EXEMPTION

Advantage is taken in the preparation of the Director's Report of the special exemptions applicable to small companies conferred by Part VII of the Companies Act 1985. In the Director's opinion, the Company is entitled to those exemptions as a small company
