Accountants' report to the director on the unaudited financial statements of BTC Management Services Limited

In accordance with the engagement letter dated 6 May 2005 and in order to assist you to fulfil your duties under the Companies Act 1985, we have compiled the financial statements of the company which comprise the profit and loss account, the balance sheet and the related notes, as set out on pages 4 to 7, from the accounting records and information and explanations you have given to us.

This report is made solely to the director, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement. Our work has been undertaken so that we can compile the financial statements that we have been engaged to compile, report to the director that we have done so, and state those matters that we have agreed to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the director, as a body, for our compilation work, or for this report.

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with the technical guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales and have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet for the year ended 31 March 2006 your duty to ensure that the company has kept proper accounting records and to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Act 1985. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit on the financial statements. For this reason, we have not verified the accuracy or completeness of the accounting records or other information you have given to us and we do not therefore express any opinion on the financial statements.

The notes on pages 6 and 7 form part of these financial statements.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2006

1 Accounting policies

a) Basis of accounting

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention.

The company has taken advantage of the exemption in Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from the requirement to produce a cashflow statement on the grounds that it is a small company.

b) Pensions

The company operates a defined contribution pension scheme. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the company in an independently administered fund. The pension cost charge represents contributions payable by the company to the fund for that year.

2 Turnover

Turnover represents the invoiced amount of services provided stated net of value added tax. All operations are continuing.

8 Control

The parent undertaking is Stevenage Initiative Limited, a company incorporated in Great Britain. Consolidated financial statements are not prepared by the parent undertaking as the Group qualifies as a small group and has therefore taken advantage of the exemption available under Section 248 of the Companies Act 1985.

The parent undertaking, which is limited by guarantee, has no single controlling party.

9 Related party transactions

During the year, the parent undertaking received £76,154 (2005 - £80,869) from Stevenage Borough Council on behalf of the company. The parent undertaking used these funds to pay salaries on behalf of the company.

During the year, the company collected £14,947 (2005 - £13,839) in respect of rent and services from the parent undertaking as agent for Stevenage Borough Council.
