3. Any reference in these Regulations to an enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended or extended by or under any other enactment.

INTERPRETATION

4. In Regulation 1 of Table A there shall be inserted before the words "office" and "secretary" the word "the" and between the words "regulations" and "the Act" the words "and in any regulations adopting in whole or in part the same".

 - (i) save as provided in sub-paragraph (ii) of this Regulation the authority given in this Regulation to the Directors to exercise the power of the Company to allot shares shall expire five years after the date of adoption of these Articles of the Company;
 - (ii) the Members in General Meeting may by Ordinary Resolution:
 - (a) renew the said authority (whether or not it has been previously renewed) for a period not exceeding five years, but such Resolution must state (or restate) the amount of shares which may be allotted under such renewed authority or, as the case may be, the amount re
 - must specify the date on which the renewed authority will expire

(b) revoke or vary any such authority (or renewed authority).

(iii) notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Regulation the Company may make an offer or agreement which would or might require shares to be allotted after such authority has expired and in pursuance of such an offer or agreement the directors may allot shares notwithstanding that such authority or renewed authority has expired.

In this Regulation any reference to the allotment of shares shall include a reference to the grant of any right to subscribe for, or to convert any security into shares, but shall not include any reference to the allotment of shares pursuant to such a right.

6. Subject to the provisions of the Act, shares may be issued which are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the holder on such terms and in such manner as the company may in these Articles of Association determine.
7. The Share Capital of the Company at the date of adoption of these Articles is £200 divided into 150 "A" Ordinary Shares of £1 each and 50 "B" Ordinary Shares of £1 each. The "A" Ordinary Shares and "B" Ordinary Shares shall have the same rights and privileges and shall rank pari passu in all respects save that the holders of the "B" Ordinary Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend, or vote at any General Meeting of the Company, they shall have no rights in the event of the winding up of the Company, nor shall they confer the right to receive nor shall they confer the right to subscribe for or receive any allotment of shares other than shares of the same class and accordingly (unless otherwise determined by special resolution):

After the expiration of that period, or on the receipt of an intimation in writing from the offeree that he declines to accept the shares so offered, the Directors may in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations allot, grant options over or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may in like manner and subject as aforesaid, allot any such new or original shares which by reason of the proportion borne by them to the number of persons entitled to any such offer as aforesaid or by reason of any other difficulty in apportioning the same cannot in the view of the Directors effectively be offered in the manner aforesaid.

The Directors may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the Company has a lien. The first sentence of regulation 24 and all of regulation 25 of Table A shall not apply to the Company.

- (b) An alternate director shall not be entitled as such to receive any remuneration from the Company, save that he may be paid by the Company such part (if any) of the remuneration otherwise payable to his appointer as such appointer may by notice in writing to the Company from time to time direct, and the first sentence of Clause 66 of Table A shall be modified accordingly.

21. The office of a Director shall automatically be vacated if he becomes incapable by reason of illness, injury or operation of law of managing and administering his property and affairs, and Clause 81 in Table A shall be modified accordingly.

INDEMNITY

22. Subject to the provisions of section 310 of the Act every Director or other officer of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in or about execution of the duties of his office or otherwise in relation thereto, including any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under Sections 144 (3) of (4) or Section 727 of the Act in which relief is granted to him by the Court, and no other Director or other officer shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by the Company in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.
