Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 and in accordance with applicable International Financial Reports Standards. There are no accounting policies where the use of assumptions and estimates are determined to be significant to the financial statements.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which assumes the continued support of other group companies. If this support was not forthcoming, adjustments would be required to value assets and liabilities at their realisable value.

An income statement, a statement of changes in equity and a cash flow statement are not presented in these financial statements as these would show nil amounts for the current and preceding financial years.

2. Current assets: amounts owed by other group companies

4. Related party transactions

The company's immediate parent company is Bank of Scotland Plc. The company regarded by the directors as the ultimate parent company is Lloyds Banking Group plc, a limited liability company incorporated and domiciled in Scotland, which is also the parent undertaking of the largest group of undertakings for which group accounts are drawn up and of which the smallest such group of undertakings. Copies of the group accounts of both companies may be obtained from the Company Secretary's office, Lloyds Banking Group plc, 25 Gresham Street, London EC2V 7HN.

The company's related parties include other companies in the Lloyds Banking Group, pension schemes of the company's ultimate parent company and the company's key management personnel. Key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the company, which is determined to be the company's directors.

LLOYDS SECRETARIES LIMITED
(Company No 2791894)

There were no transactions between the company and key management personnel during the current or preceding year

Key management personnel are employed by other companies in the Lloyds Banking Group and consider that their services to the company are incidental to their other activities within the group
