FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

CHANNEL FOUR INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

Ownership

Channel Four International Limited (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Channel Four Television Corporation (the Corporation).

Principal activities

The Company manages the worldwide distribution and exploitation of film and programme rights acquired by the Corporation.

The Company has appointed sub-agents to sell television rights in certain territories. It liaises with, and accounts to, independent producers and third parties for their share of distribution income.

The Company pays fees to the Corporation for the rights which are licensed by the Corporation to the Company.

The Company plans to continue to operate on this basis in the future.

Results and dividends

The directors consider the results for the year to be satisfactory.

The Company generated turnover of £14,329,000 in the year to 31 December 1995. £3,289,000 was payable to independent producers and third parties as their share of the distribution income. Direct costs of sales amounted to £2,944,000. £5,176,000 was payable to the Corporation for the rights which the Company manages. Amounts due to the Corporation from pre-sales amounted to £241,000. After other sales and administrative costs, the Company had a profit after tax for the period of £391,000 which has been transferred to reserves.

The directors do not recommend payment of a dividend.

CHANNEL FOUR INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

Directors

The present directors of the Company who have served throughout the year are:

Michael Grade	:	Chairman
Colin Leventhal	:	Managing Director
David Scott	:	Director of Finance
Bill Stephens	:	Director of Sales
Richard Hurst	:	Director of Business Affairs
John Willis	:	Non-executive director
Andy Barnes	:	Non-executive director

Each of the directors is an employee of the Corporation. None of the directors had any interests in the Company's shares.

Directors' and officers' liability insurance

The directors consider that it is appropriate, with the increasing volume and complexity of legislation, that liability insurance should be available to directors and officers and a policy has been effected.

Employment policy

The Company has no employees. Its activities are carried out by employees of the Corporation who are seconded to the Company.

Employment policies and procedures for employee involvement and consultation are set out in the annual report and financial statements of the Corporation.

Auditors

Coopers & Lybrand have expressed their willingness to continue in office in accordance with Section 384 of the Companies Act 1985. A resolution proposing their reappointment as auditors will be put to the members at the Annual General Meeting.

By order of the Board

CHANNEL FOUR INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are required by UK company law to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss for that year.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently and reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates have been made in the preparation of the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 1995. The directors also confirm that applicable accounting standards have been followed and that the financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

REPORT OF THE AUDITORS TO THE MEMBERS OF
CHANNEL FOUR INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

We have audited the financial statements on pages 5 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

As described on page 3 the Company's directors are responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on our audit, on those statements and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material mis-statement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion, we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs at 31 December 1995 and of its profit and total recognised gains for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

for the year ended 31 December 1995

Basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The financial statements meet the requirements, in so far as they are applicable, of the Companies Act 1985 and of accounting standards currently in force.

Accounting policies

A summary of the more important accounting policies, all of which have been applied consistently, is set out below.

Sale of programme and film rights

Profit is recognised on contracts for the sale of rights of completed films and programmes as payments under the contracts become due.

Investment income

Income due from investments in other programmes and films is recognised upon notification of that income.

Foreign currencies

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Any resultant gain or loss on exchange is shown as part of the profit or loss for the period.

Cashflow statement

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Channel Four Television Corporation and the cashflow of the Company is included in the consolidated cashflow statement of Channel Four Television Corporation. Consequently the Company is exempt under the terms of Financial Reporting Standard No 1 from publishing a cashflow statement.
