1.3 Directors' Responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those accounts, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- · make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

1.4 Political and Charitable Contributions

During the period the company made no political or charitable contributions

1.5 Auditors

Under the Companies Act 1985 (Audit Exemption) Regulations 1994, the company has not appointed any auditors

In preparing the above report, the directors have taken advantage of the special exemptions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies

Signed on behalf of the board of directors

The directors have taken advantage of special exemptions conferred by Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies in the preparation of the accounts and have done so on the grounds that, in their opinion, the company is entitled to those exemptions

The exemption conferred by S249A(1) not to have these accounts audited applies to the company and the directors confirm that no notice has been deposited under S249B(2) of the Companies Act 1985

The directors acknowledge their responsibility for ensuring that

- 1) The company keeps accounting records which comply with S221 of the Companies Act 1985, and
- 2) The accounts give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at 31st October 2007 and of its profit or loss for the period then ended in accordance with the requirements of S226, and which otherwise comply with the requirements of the Companies Act 1985 relating to accounts, so far as applicable to the company

Signed on behalf of the board of directors
