- 2.2 Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these Articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when these Articles become binding on the Company.

- 2.3 Except in relation to the number of shareholders constituting a quorum in Article 66, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings and to the proceedings at such meetings shall apply to separate meetings of any class of shareholders.

3 Liability of shareholders

The liability of the shareholders is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares held by them.

Part 2 Share Capital

4 Rights attaching to the Deferred Shares and the B Deferred Shares

The Deferred Shares and the B Deferred Shares shall entitle the holders thereof to the following rights:

4.1 As regards income:

The holders of the Deferred Shares and the B Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive any dividend out of the profits of the Company available for distribution and resolved to be distributed in respect of any financial year.

4.2 As regards capital:

On a distribution of assets on winding-up or other return of capital (otherwise than on conversion or redemption or purchase by the Company of any of its shares), the holders of the Deferred Shareholders and the B Deferred Shareholders shall be entitled to receive the amount paid up on their shares. The Deferred Shareholders and the B Deferred Shareholders shall not be entitled to any further or other right of participation in the assets of the Company.

4.3 Voting Rights:

The holders of the Deferred Shares and the B Deferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of or to attend (either personally or by proxy) any general meeting of the Company or to vote (either personally or by proxy) on any resolution to be proposed thereat.

4.4 Variation:

Subject to Article 37, the rights attached to the Deferred Shares and the B Deferred Shares shall not be deemed to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking in priority to or pari passu with or subsequent to such shares.

5 Ordinary Shares

The rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares are set out below.

5.1 As regards income:

The profits of the Company available for distribution to the extent that they are resolved to be paid shall be distributed by way of dividend among the holders of the Ordinary Shares pro rata to the nominal amount of the Ordinary Shares held by them.

5.2 As regards capital:

On a distribution of assets on a winding-up, reduction of capital or otherwise, Ordinary Shareholders shall be entitled to be paid the balance of the surplus assets of the Company remaining, after payment of its liabilities, in proportion to the number of Ordinary Shares held by each of them.

5.3 Voting Rights:

The Ordinary Shareholders shall be entitled to receive notice of, attend and speak at and vote at general meetings of the Company. On a show of hands each Ordinary Shareholder shall have one vote and on a poll the Ordinary Shareholders shall have one vote for each Ordinary Share held by them.

Part 3
Directors

Directors' Powers and Responsibilities

6 Number of Directors

Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the number of Directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be subject to any maximum but shall not be less than two.

7 Directors' general authority

Subject to the Articles, the Directors are responsible for the management of the Company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the Company.

8 Shareholders' reserve power

8.1 Subject to the provisions of these Articles relating to the rights attaching to the various classes of shares, the Ordinary Shareholders may, by special resolution, direct the Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

8.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

9 Directors may delegate

9.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:

9.1.1 to such person (who need not be a Director) or committee (comprising any number of persons, who need not be Directors);

9.1.2 by such means (including by power of attorney);

9.1.3 to such an extent;

9.1.4 relation to such matters or territories; and

9.1.5 on such terms and conditions,

as they think fit.

9.2 Any reference in these Articles to the exercise of a power or discretion by the Directors shall include a reference to the exercise of a power or discretion by any person or committee to whom it has been delegated.

9.3 The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

10 Committees

The Directors may make regulations in relation to the procedures of committees or sub-committees to whom their powers or discretions have been delegated or sub-delegated. Subject to any such regulations, the meetings and procedures of any committee or sub-committee shall be governed by the provisions of these Articles regulating the meetings and procedures of Directors.

Decision-Making by Directors

11 Directors to take decisions collectively

11.1 The general rule about decision-making by Directors is that any decision of the Directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken by Directors' written resolution in accordance with Article 12.

11.2 If in accordance with the provisions of Article 6, the Company only has one Director, the general rule does not apply, and the Director may take decisions without regard to any of the provisions of the Articles relating to Directors' decision-making, provided that any decision taken shall be recorded in writing and the record kept for 10 years.

12 Directors' written resolutions

12.1 Any Director may propose a written resolution by giving written notice to the other Directors or may request the Secretary to give such notice.

12.2 A Directors' written resolution is adopted when all the Directors who would have been entitled to vote on such resolution if it had been proposed at a meeting of the Directors have signed one or more copies of it.

12.3 Once a Director's written resolution has been adopted, it must be treated as if it had been a decision taken at a Director's meeting in accordance with the Articles.

13 Calling a Directors' meeting

13.1 Any Director may call a Directors' meeting by giving notice of the meeting to the other Directors or by requesting the Secretary to give such notice.

13.2 Notice of any Directors' meeting must indicate:

13.2.1 its proposed date and time;

13.2.2 where it is to take place; and

13.2.3 if it is anticipated that Directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

13.3 Notice of a Directors' meeting must be given to each Director, but need not be in writing.

13.4 Notice of a Directors' meeting need not be given to Directors who waive their entitlement to notice of that meeting, by giving notice to that effect to the Company before or after the date on which the meeting is held. Where such notice is given after the meeting has been held, that does not affect the validity of the meeting, or of any business conducted at it.

14 Participation in Directors' meetings

14.1 Subject to the Articles, Directors participate in a Directors' meeting, or part of a Directors' meeting, when:

14.1.1 the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles; and 14.1.2 they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

14.2 In determining whether Directors are participating in a Directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any Director is or how they communicate with each other.

14.3 If all the Directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

15 Quorum for Directors' meetings

15.1 At a Directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

15.2 Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution, the quorum for Directors' meetings shall be two.

15.3 If the total number of Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decision other than a decision:

15.3.1 to appoint further Directors; or 15.3.2 to call a general meeting so as to enable the shareholders to appoint further Directors.

16 Chairing of Directors' meetings

- 16.1 The Directors may appoint a Director to chair their meetings.
- 16.2 The person so appointed for the time being is known as the Chairman.
- 16.3 The Directors may terminate the Chairman's appointment at any time.
- 16.4 If the Chairman is not participating in a Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating Directors may appoint one of their number to chair it.

17 Validity of proceedings

All acts done by any meeting of Directors, or of any committee or sub-committee of the Directors, or by any person acting as a member of any such committee or sub-committee, shall as regards all persons dealing in good faith with the Company be valid, notwithstanding that there was some defect in the appointment of any Director or any such persons, or that any such persons were disqualified or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote.

18 Borrowing

The Directors must ensure that, when exercising the Company's power to borrow, they act in accordance with the 'Vodafone Group Treasury Policy (TQP01)' prevailing from time to time.

19 Record of decisions to be kept

The Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, of every majority decision taken by the Directors and of every Directors' written resolution for at least 10 years from the date of the decision or resolution.

20 Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the Directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to Directors.

21 Change of name

Subject to the prior written consent of the Parent, the Company may change its name by a resolution of the Directors.

Directors' Interests

22 Authorisation of Directors' interests

- 22.1 For the purposes of Section 175 of the Companies Act 2006, the Directors shall have the power to authorise any matter which would or might otherwise constitute or give rise to a breach of the duty of a Director to avoid a situation in which he has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company.

22.2 Authorisation of a matter under this Article 22 shall be effective only if:

- 22.2.1 the matter in question shall have been proposed for consideration at a meeting of the Directors, in accordance with the usual procedures for such meetings or in such other manner as the Directors may resolve;
- 22.2.2 any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question and any other interested Director (together the “Interested Directors”); and
- 22.2.3 the matter was agreed to without the Interested Directors voting or would have been agreed to if the votes of the Interested Directors had not been counted.

22.3 If a question arises at a meeting of the Directors as to the right of a Director to vote, the question may before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose ruling in relation to any Director other than the chairman, is to be final and conclusive.

22.4 Any authorisation of a matter under this Article 22 may:

- 22.4.1 extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may arise out of the matter so authorised;
- 22.4.2 be subject to such conditions or limitations as the Directors may resolve, whether at the time such authorisation is given or subsequently; and
- 22.4.3 be terminated by the Directors at any time; and a Director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him by the Directors pursuant to any such authorisation.

22.5 A Director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any matter authorised by the Directors under this Article 22 and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating to such a matter shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such benefit.

23 Permitted Interests

23.1 Subject to compliance with Article 23.2, a Director, notwithstanding his office, may have an interest of the following kind:

- 23.1.1 where a Director (or a person connected with him) is a director or other officer of, or employed by, or otherwise interested (including by the holding of shares) in any Relevant Company;

- 23.1.2 where a Director (or a person connected with him) is a party to, or otherwise interested in, any contract, transaction or arrangement with a Relevant Company, or in which the Company is otherwise interested;
- 23.1.3 where a Director has an interest which cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest;
- 23.1.4 where a Director has an interest, or a transaction or arrangement gives rise to an interest, of which the Director is not aware; or
- 23.1.5 where a Director has any other interest authorised by ordinary resolution.

No authorisation under Article 22 shall be necessary in respect of any such interest.

- 23.2 A Director shall declare the nature and extent of any interest permitted under Article 23.1 and not falling within Article 23.3, at a meeting of the Directors or in such other manner as the Directors may resolve.
 - 23.3 No declaration of an interest shall be required by a Director in relation to an interest:
 - 23.3.1 falling within Article 23.1.1, 23.1.3 or 23.1.4;
 - 23.3.2 if, or to the extent that, the other Directors are already aware of such interest (and for this purpose the other Directors are treated as aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware); or
 - 23.3.3 if, or to the extent that, it concerns the terms of his service contract (as defined in Section 227 of the Companies Act 2006) that have been or are to be considered by a meeting of the Directors, or by a committee of Directors appointed for the purpose under these Articles.
 - 23.4 A Director shall not, save as otherwise agreed by him, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he (or a person connected with him) derives from any such contract, transaction or arrangement or from any such office or employment or from any interest in any Relevant Company or for such remuneration, each as referred to in Article 23.1, and no such contract, transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.
- 24 Quorum and voting
- 24.1 A Director shall not be entitled to vote on any resolution in respect of any contract, transaction or arrangement, or any other proposal, in which he (or a person connected with him) has an interest, unless the interest is solely of a kind permitted by Article 23.1.
 - 24.2 A Director shall not be counted in the quorum at a meeting of the Directors in relation to any resolution on which he is not entitled to vote.

25 Confidential information

25.1 Subject to Article 25.2, if a Director, otherwise than by virtue of his position as Director, receives information in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to a person other than the Company, he shall not be required:

25.1.1 to disclose such information to the Company or to the Directors, or to any Director, officer or employee of the Company; or 25.1.2 otherwise use or apply such confidential information for the purpose of or in connection with the performance of his duties as a Director.

25.2 Where such duty of confidentiality arises out of a situation in which the Director has, or can have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company, Article 25.1 shall apply only if the conflict arises out of a matter which has been authorised under Article 22 or falls within Article 23.

25.3 This Article 25 is without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse or release the Director from disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure may otherwise be required under this Article 25.

26 Directors' interests - general

26.1 For the purposes of Articles 22 to 26:

26.1.1 a person is connected with a Director if that person is connected for the purposes of Section 252 of the Companies Act 2006; and

26.1.2 an interest (whether of the Director or of such a connected person) of which a Director has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

26.2 Where a Director has an interest which can reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest, the Director may, and shall if so requested by the Directors, take such additional steps as may be necessary or desirable for the purpose of managing such conflict of interest, including compliance with any procedures laid down from time to time by the Directors for the purpose of managing conflicts of interest generally and/or any specific procedures approved by the Directors for the purpose of or in connection with the situation or matter in question, including without limitation:

26.2.1 absenting himself from any meetings of the Directors at which the relevant situation or matter falls to be considered; and

26.2.2 not reviewing documents or information made available to the Directors generally in relation to such situation or matter and/or arranging for such documents or information to be reviewed by a professional adviser to ascertain the extent to which it might be appropriate for him to have access to such documents or information.

26.3 The Company may by ordinary resolution ratify any contract, transaction or arrangement, or other proposal, not properly authorised by reason of a contravention of any provisions of Articles 22 to 26.

Appointment of Directors

27 Methods of appointing Directors

27.1 Any person who is willing to act as a Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Director:

27.1.1 by ordinary resolution;

27.1.2 by a decision of the Directors; or

27.1.3 in accordance with the provisions of Article 85.

27.2 In any case where, as a result of death, the Company has no shareholders and no Directors, the personal representatives of the last shareholder to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a Director.

27.3 For the purposes of Article 27.2, where 2 or more shareholders die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger shareholder is deemed to have survived an older shareholder.

28 Termination of Director's appointment

28.1 A person ceases to be a Director as soon as:

28.1.1 that person ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

28.1.2 a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

28.1.3 a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

28.1.4 a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

28.1.5 by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;

28.1.6 notification is received by the Company from the Director that the Director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

28.1.7 that person is absent from meetings of Directors for six months without permission and the Directors have resolved that that person should cease to be a Director;

28.1.8 the Parent chooses, in accordance with the provisions of Article 85, to remove that person from the office of a Director; or

- 28.1.9 notice of termination is served or deemed served upon the Director and that notice is given by all the other Directors for the time being.

29 Directors' remuneration

- 29.1 Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Directors decide.

- 29.2 Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine:

- 29.2.1 for their services to the Company as Directors; and

- 29.2.2 for any other service which they undertake for the Company.

- 29.3 Subject to the Articles, a Director's remuneration may:

- 29.3.1 take any form; and

- 29.3.2 include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that Director.

- 29.4 Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

30 Directors' expenses

- 30.1 The Company may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at:

- 30.1.1 meetings of Directors or committees of Directors;

- 30.1.2 general meetings; or

- 30.1.3 separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or of debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

31 Appointment of executive Directors

- 31.1 The Directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their number to be the holder of any executive office (including, where considered appropriate, the office of Chairman) on such terms and for such period as they may (subject to the Companies Acts) resolve and, without prejudice to the terms of any contract entered into in any particular case, may at any time revoke or vary the terms of any such appointment.

- 31.2 The appointment of any Director to the office of Chairman or Managing Director shall automatically terminate if he ceases to be a Director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

- 31.3 The appointment of any Director to any other executive office shall not automatically terminate if he ceases to be a Director for any reason, unless the contract or resolution under which he holds office shall expressly state otherwise, in which event such termination shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

Alternate Directors

32 Alternate Directors

- 32.1 Any Director (the “appointor”) may at any time appoint any person (including another Director) to be his alternate (the “Alternate” or the “Alternate Director”) and may at any time terminate such appointment.
- 32.2 The appointment or termination of appointment of an Alternate Director must be made by notice in writing signed by the appointor.
- 32.3 The appointment of an Alternate Director shall terminate:
- 32.3.1 when the appointor revokes the appointment by notice to the Company specifying when it is to terminate;
 - 32.3.2 on the occurrence in relation to the Alternate of any event which if it happened to the Alternate’s appointor, would result in the termination of the appointor’s appointment as a Director;
 - 32.3.3 on the death of the Alternate’s appointor; or
 - 32.3.4 if his appointor ceases to be a Director.
- 32.4 An Alternate Director shall be entitled to receive notices of meetings of the Directors and of any committee of the Directors of which his appointor is a member and shall be entitled to attend and vote as a Director at any such meeting and be counted in the quorum at any such meeting at which his appointor is not personally present and generally at such meetings to perform all functions of his appointor as a Director. For the purposes of the proceedings at such meetings, the provisions of these Articles shall apply as if the Alternate Director (instead of his appointor) were a Director.
- 32.5 If an Alternate is himself a Director or shall attend any such meeting as an Alternate for more than one Director, his voting rights shall be cumulative but he shall not be counted more than once for the purposes of the quorum.
- 32.6 If his appointor is for the time being temporarily unable to act through ill health or disability an Alternate’s signature to any resolution in writing of the Directors shall be as effective as the signature of his appointor.
- 32.7 This Article 32 shall also apply (with such changes as are necessary) to such extent as the Directors may from time to time resolve to any meeting of any committee of the Directors of which the appointor of an Alternate Director is a member.

- 32.8 An Alternate Director shall not (except as otherwise provided in this Article 32) have power to act as a Director, nor shall he be deemed to be a Director for the purposes of these Articles, nor shall he be deemed to be the agent of his appointor.
- 32.9 An Alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements or transactions and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified to the same extent as if he were a Director.
- 32.10 An Alternate shall not be entitled to receive remuneration from the Company in respect of his appointment as Alternate Director except to the extent his appointor directs the Company to pay to the Alternate some of the remuneration otherwise payable to that Director.

Secretary

33 Secretary

The Company shall have a Secretary who shall be appointed on such terms as the Directors think fit. Any Secretary so appointed may at any time be removed from office by the Directors, but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company.

Part 4 Shares and Distributions

Shares

34 Directors' powers to allot securities

- 34.1 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, these Articles and any resolution of the Company, the Directors may allot shares in the Company and grant rights to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, shares to such persons, at such times and on such terms, including as to the ability of such persons to assign their rights to be issued such shares, as they think proper.
- 34.2 The Directors shall be generally and unconditionally authorised pursuant to and in accordance with Section 551 of the Companies Act 2006 to exercise for each Allotment Period all the powers of the Company to allot shares, and to grant rights to subscribe for, or to convert any security into, shares, of an aggregate nominal amount up to the Section 551 Amount. By such authority the Directors may, during the Allotment Period, make offers or agreements which would or might require shares to be allotted, or rights to be granted, after the expiry of such period.
- 34.3 The Directors may, from time to time, allot equity securities as if Section 561 (Existing shareholders' rights of pre-emption) of the Companies Act 2006 did not apply to the allotment.
- 34.4 For the purposes of this Article:
- 34.4.1 "Allotment Period" means any period specified as such by the Relevant Ordinary Resolution;

34.4.2 “equity securities”, “ordinary shares” and references to the allotment of equity securities shall have the same meanings as in Section 560 of the Companies Act 2006;

34.4.3 “Relevant Ordinary Resolution” means, at any time, the most recently passed resolution varying, renewing or further renewing the authority conferred by Article 34.2; and “Section 551 Amount” means the amount specified as such by the Relevant Ordinary Resolution.

35 Powers to issue different classes of share

35.1 Subject to the Articles, but without prejudice to the rights attached to any existing share or class of shares, the Company may issue shares with such rights or restrictions as may be determined by ordinary resolution.

35.2 The Company may issue shares which are to be redeemed, or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or the holder, and the Directors may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such shares.

36 Manner of variation of rights

Whenever the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the special rights attached to any class may be varied or abrogated:

36.1.1 with the consent in writing of the holders of three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class; or

36.1.2 with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of the class (but not otherwise), and may be so varied or abrogated either whilst the Company is a going concern or during or in contemplation of a winding-up.

36.2 The provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings and to the proceedings at such meetings shall apply to separate meetings of a class of shareholders (with only such changes as are necessary) except that:

36.2.1 the necessary quorum at a separate meeting shall be two persons at least, holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of the class;

36.2.2 at any adjourned meeting any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum;

36.2.3 any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll;

36.2.4 every such holder shall on a poll have one vote for every share of the class held by him; and

36.2.5 if a meeting is adjourned for any reason including a lack of quorum, the adjourned meeting may be held less than ten clear days after the original meeting notwithstanding Article 69.

36.3 The provisions of this Article 36 shall apply to the variation or abrogation of the special rights attached to some only of the shares of any class as if each group of shares of the class differently treated form a separate class the special rights of which are to be varied.

37 Matters not constituting variation of rights

The special rights attached to any class of shares shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by their terms of issue, be deemed to be varied by:

37.1 the creation or issue of further shares ranking, as regards participation in the profits or assets of the Company, in some or all respects equally with or in priority to them; or

37.2 the purchase or redemption by the Company of any of its own shares; or 37.3 any allotment of shares in the Company in accordance with Article 35.

38 Company not bound by less than absolute interests

Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and except as otherwise required by law or the Articles, the Company is not in any way to be bound by or recognise any interest in a share other than the holder's absolute ownership of it and all the rights attaching to it.

39 Share certificates

39.1 It is deemed to be a condition of issue of any share that a share certificate is not required to be issued to a shareholder following allotment of such share, provided that the Company must issue a shareholder, free of charge, with one or more certificates in respect of the shares which that shareholder holds, upon request by the shareholder.

39.2 Every certificate shall specify:

39.2.1 the number and class of shares to which it relates;

39.2.2 the nominal value of those shares;

39.2.3 the amount paid up on the shares; and

39.2.4 any distinguishing numbers assigned to them

39.3 No certificate may be issued in respect of shares of more than one class.

39.4 If more than one person holds a share, only one certificate may be issued in respect of it.

39.5 Certificates must:

39.5.1 have affixed to them the Company's common seal; or 39.5.2 be otherwise executed in accordance with the Companies Acts.

40 Replacement share certificates.

40.1 A shareholder who has separate certificates in respect of shares of one class may request in writing that it be replaced with a consolidated certificate. The Company may comply with such request at its discretion.

40.2 A shareholder who has a consolidated share certificate may request in writing that it be replaced with two or more separate certificates representing the shares in such proportions as he may specify. The Company may comply with such request at its discretion.

40.3 If a share certificate is damaged or defaced or alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the member shall be issued a new certificate representing the same shares upon request.

40.4 No new certificate will be issued pursuant to this Article 401 unless the relevant shareholder has:

40.4.1 first delivered the old certificate or certificates to the Company for cancellation; and 40.4.2 complied with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the Directors may think fit.

41 Share transfers

41.1 Shares may be transferred by means of an instrument of transfer executed by or on behalf of the transferor. Such instrument of transfer must be in hard copy form but may otherwise be in any usual form or any other form approved by the Directors.

41.2 No fee may be charged for registering any instrument of transfer or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share.

41.3 The Company may retain any instrument of transfer which is registered.

41.4 The transferor remains the holder of the shares concerned until the transferee's name is entered in the register of members in respect of those shares.

41.5 The Directors may refuse to register the transfer of a share if a proper instrument of transfer is not in an acceptable form. In case of any such refusal, the instrument of transfer must be returned to the transferee with the notice of the refusal as soon as practicable and in any event within two months of the date that the share transfer is lodged with the Company, unless the Directors suspect that the proposed transfer may be fraudulent.

42 Transmission of shares

42.1 If title to a share passes to a transmittee, the Company may only recognise the transmittee as having any title to that share.

42.2 A transmittee who produces such evidence of entitlement to shares as the Directors may reasonably require:

42.2.1 may, subject to the Articles, choose either to become the holder of those shares or to have them transferred to another person, and

42.2.2 subject to the Articles, and pending any transfer of the shares to another person, has the same rights as the holder had.

42.3 A transmittee does not have the right to attend or vote at a general meeting, or agree to a proposed written resolution, in respect of shares to which it is entitled, by reason of the holder's death or bankruptcy or otherwise, unless it becomes the holder of those shares.

43 Exercise of transmittees' rights

43.1 A transmittee who wishes to become the holder of shares to which it has become entitled must notify the Company in writing of that wish.

43.2 If the transmittee wishes to have a share transferred to another person, the transmittee must execute an instrument of transfer in hard copy form in respect of it.

43.3 Any transfer made or executed under this Article 43 is to be treated as if it were made or executed by the person from whom the transmittee has derived rights in respect of the share, and as if the event which gave rise to the transmission had not occurred.

44 Transmittees bound by prior notices

If a notice is given to a shareholder in respect of shares and a transmittee is entitled to those shares, the transmittee is bound by the notice if it was given to the shareholder before the transmittee's name has been entered in the register of members.

Dividends and Other Distributions

45 Procedure for declaring dividends

45.1 The Company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the Directors may decide to pay interim dividends.

45.2 A dividend must not be declared unless the Directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Such a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the Directors.

- 45.3 No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
- 45.4 Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or Directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
- 45.5 The Directors may pay fixed dividends on any class of shares carrying such a dividend expressed to be payable on fixed dates on the dates prescribed for payment if it appears to them that the profits available for distribution justify the payment.

46 Payment of dividends and other distributions

- 46.1 Where a dividend or other sum which is a distribution is payable in respect of a share, it must be paid by one or more of the following means:
- 46.1.1 transfer to a bank or building society account specified by the payee either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide;
 - 46.1.2 sending a cheque made payable to the payee by post to the payee at the payee's registered address (if the payee is a holder of the share), or (in any other case) to an address specified by the payee either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide;
 - 46.1.3 sending a cheque made payable to such person by post to such person at such address as the payee has specified either in writing or as the Directors may otherwise decide; or
 - 46.1.4 any other means of payment as the Directors agree with the payee either in writing or by such other means as the Directors decide.
- 46.2 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to the rights attaching to any shares, any dividend or other sum payable on or in respect of a share may be paid in such currency as the Directors may resolve, using such exchange rate for currency conversions as the Directors may select.
- 47 No interest on distributions
- 47.1 The Company may not pay interest on any dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share unless otherwise provided by:
- 47.1.1 the terms on which the share was issued; or
 - 47.1.2 the provisions of another agreement between the holder of that share and the Company.

48 Unclaimed distributions

48.1 All dividends or other sums which are:

48.1.1 payable in respect of shares; and

48.1.2 unclaimed after having been declared or become payable,

may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed.

48.2 The payment of any such dividend or other sum into a separate account does not make the Company a trustee in respect of it.

48.3 If:

48.3.1 twelve years have passed from the date on which a dividend or other sum became due for payment; and

48.3.2 the payee has not claimed it, the payee is no longer entitled to that dividend or other sum and it ceases to remain owing by the Company.

49 Non-cash distributions

49.1 Subject to the terms of issue of the share in question, the Company may, by ordinary resolution on the recommendation of the Directors, direct the payment of a dividend in whole or in part by the transfer of non-cash assets of equivalent value (including, without limitation, shares or other securities in any company) and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution.

49.2 For the purposes of paying a non-cash distribution, the Directors may make whatever arrangements they think fit, including, where any difficulty arises regarding the distribution:

49.2.1 fixing the value of any assets;

49.2.2 paying cash to any payee on the basis of that value in order to adjust the rights of recipients; and

49.2.3 vesting any assets in trustees.

50 Waiver of distributions

50.1 Payees may waive their entitlement to a dividend or other distribution payable in respect of a share in whole or in part by giving the Company notice in writing to that effect, but if:

50.1.1 the share has more than one holder; or

50.1.2 more than one person is entitled to the share, whether by reason of the death or bankruptcy of one or more joint holders, or otherwise, the notice is not effective unless it is expressed to be given, and signed, by all the holders or persons otherwise entitled to the share.

Capitalisation of Profits

51 Authority to capitalise and appropriation of capitalised sums

51.1 Subject to the Articles, the Directors may, if they are so authorised by an ordinary resolution:

- 51.1.1 capitalise any profits of the Company (whether or not they are available for distribution) which are not required for paying a preferential dividend, or any sum standing to the credit of the Company's share premium account, capital redemption reserve or other undistributable reserve; and
- 51.1.2 appropriate any sum which they so decide to capitalise (a "capitalised sum") to the persons who would have been entitled to it if it were distributed by way of dividend (the "persons entitled") and in the same proportions.

51.2 Capitalised sums must be applied:

- 51.2.1 on behalf of the persons entitled; and
- 51.2.2 in the same proportions as a dividend would have been distributed to them.

51.3 Any capitalised sum may be applied in paying up new Ordinary Shares of a nominal amount equal to the capitalised sum which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct.

51.4 A capitalised sum which was appropriated from profits available for distribution may be applied:

- 51.4.1 in paying up new debentures of the Company which are then allotted credited as fully paid to the persons entitled or as they may direct: or
- 51.4.2 in or towards paying up any amounts unpaid on existing shares held by the persons entitled; or
- 51.4.3 a combination of the two.

51.5 Subject to the Articles the Directors may:

- 51.5.1 apply capitalised sums in accordance with Articles 51.3 and 51.4 partly in one way and partly in another;
- 51.5.2 make such arrangements as they think fit to deal with shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions under this Article 51 (including to disregard fractional entitlements or for the benefit of them to accrue to the Company); and
- 51.5.3 authorise any person to enter into an agreement with the Company on behalf of all the persons entitled which is binding on them in respect of the allotment of shares and debentures to them under this Article 51.

Calls on Shares

52 Sums due on shares

52.1 For the purposes of these Articles, any sum (whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium) which by the terms of allotment of a share becomes payable upon allotment, or at any fixed date, shall be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which it is payable.

52.2 In case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

53 Power to differentiate between holders

On the allotment of shares, the Directors may provide that the amount of calls to be paid on those shares and the times of payment are different for different holders of those shares.

54 Calls

54.1 Subject to the terms of allotment of the shares, the Directors may make a "call" by requiring a shareholder to pay to the Company any money that is payable on the shares such shareholder holds as at the date of the call.

54.2 A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising the call was passed.

54.3 Notice of a call must be given to the relevant shareholder and may specify the time or times and place where payment is required to be made.

54.4 A call may be made payable by instalments.

54.5 A shareholder must pay to the Company the amount called on his shares at the time or times and place specified, but is not required to do so until 14 days have passed since the notice of call was sent.

54.6 A call may be wholly or partly revoked or postponed at any time before payment of it is made, as the Directors may decide.

55 Liability for calls

55.1 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of such share.

55.2 A person on whom a call is made remains liable for the call notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

56 Interest on overdue amounts

- 56.1 If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid by the time it is due for payment, the shareholder from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the sum from the time payment was due to the time of actual payment at such rate (not exceeding 15 per cent per annum) as the Directors decide.
- 56.2 The Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part at their discretion.

57 Payment of calls in advance

- 57.1 Any shareholder may pay to the Company all or any part of the amount (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium) uncalled and unpaid upon the shares held by him. The Directors may accept or refuse such payment, as they think fit.
- 57.2 Any payment in advance of calls shall, to the extent of such payment, extinguish the liability upon the shares in respect of which it is made.
- 57.3 The Company may pay interest upon the money so received (until the same would but for such advance become payable) at such rate as the shareholder paying such sum and the Directors may agree.

Forfeiture and Lien

58 Notice on failure to pay a call

- 58.1 If a shareholder fails to pay in full any call or instalment of a call on or before the due date for payment, the Directors may at any time serve a notice in writing on him requiring payment of:
- 58.1.1 so much of the call or instalment as is due but unpaid;
 - 58.1.2 any interest which may have accrued on the unpaid amount; and
 - 58.1.3 any expenses incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
- 58.2 The notice shall state:
- 58.2.1 a date (not being less than seven days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment is to be made;
 - 58.2.2 the place where the payment is to be made; and
 - 58.2.3 that in the event of non-payment the shares on which the call has been made will be liable to be forfeited.

59 Forfeiture for non-compliance

- 59.1 If the requirements of any notice given pursuant to Article 58 are not complied with and all calls and interest and expenses due in respect of such share remain unpaid, any share in respect of which such notice has been given may be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect.

59.2 Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited share and not actually paid before forfeiture.

59.3 The Directors may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited pursuant to this Article 59.

60 Disposal of forfeited shares

60.1 A share forfeited or surrendered shall become the property of the Company and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to any person (including the person who was before such forfeiture or surrender the holder of that share or entitled to it) on such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit.

60.2 At any time before a sale, re-allotment or disposal, the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors think fit.

60.3 The Directors may authorise any person to transfer a forfeited or surrendered share pursuant to this Article 60.

61 Holder to remain liable despite forfeiture

61.1 A person whose shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall:

61.1.1 cease to be a shareholder in respect of those shares;

61.1.2 in the case of shares held in certificated form, surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for such shares;

61.1.3 remain liable to pay to the Company all moneys which at the date of forfeiture or surrender were payable by him to the Company in respect of the shares together with interest on such sum at a rate of 15 per cent per annum (or such lower rate as the Directors may decide) from the date of forfeiture or surrender until the date of actual payment.

61.2 The Directors may at their absolute discretion enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or surrender or for any consideration received on their disposal. They may also waive payment in whole or in part.

62 Lien on partly-paid shares

62.1 The Company shall have a lien on every share that is not fully paid for all moneys in respect of the share's nominal value, or any premium at which it was issued, that have not been paid to the Company and are payable immediately or at a fixed time in the future, whether or not a call has been made on such sums.

62.2 The Company's lien over a share takes priority over the rights of any third party and extends to any dividends or other sums payable by the Company in respect of that share (including any sale proceeds if that share is sold by the Company pursuant to these Articles).

- 62.3 The Directors may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article 63 for such period as the Directors decide.

63 Sale of shares subject to lien

- 63.1 The Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors decide, any share in respect of which an enforcement notice has been given if notice has not been complied with.

63.2 An enforcement notice:

- 63.2.1 may only be given if a sum in respect of which the lien exists is due and has not been paid;
- 63.2.2 must specify the share concerned;
- 63.2.3 must require payment of the sum due on a date not less than 14 days from the date of the notice;
- 63.2.4 must be addressed to the holder of, or person entitled to, that share; and
- 63.2.5 must give notice of the Company's intention to sell the share if the notice is not complied with.

- 63.3 For the purpose of giving effect to any such sale, the Directors may authorise any person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser or its nominee.

- 63.4 The net proceeds of such sale (after payment of the costs of the sale and of enforcing the lien) shall be applied:

- 63.4.1 first, in or towards payment or satisfaction of the amount in respect of which the lien exists, to the extent that amount was due on the date of the enforcement notice; and
- 63.4.2 secondly, to the person entitled to the shares immediately prior to the sale, provided that:
 - (i) that person has first delivered the certificate or certificates in respect of the shares sold to the Company for cancellation or complied with such conditions as to evidence and indemnity as the Directors may think fit; and
 - (ii) the Company shall have a lien over such proceeds (equivalent to that which existed upon the shares prior to the sale) in respect of sums which become or became due after the date of the enforcement notice in respect of the shares sold.

- 63.5 The transferee of the shares has no obligation to ensure that the purchase money is distributed in accordance with the Articles.
- 63.6 The transferee's title to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the forfeiture, surrender or sale proceedings.

64 Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary and that a share has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien of the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. Subject to compliance with any other transfer formalities required by the Articles or by law, such declaration shall constitute a good title to the share.

Part 4
Decision-Making by shareholders

Organisation of General Meetings

65 Attendance and speaking at general meetings

- 65.1 A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.
- 65.2 A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when:
- 65.2.1 that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting; and
 - 65.2.2 that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.
- 65.3 The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.
- 65.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more shareholders attending it are in the same place as each other.
- 65.5 Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

66 Quorum for general meetings

No business other than the appointment of the Chairman of the Meeting is to be transacted at a general meeting if the persons attending it (in person or by proxy) do not constitute a quorum. A quorum shall be two shareholders (in person or by proxy), but in the event that the Company has only one shareholder, the quorum for the meeting shall be that shareholder (in person or by proxy).

67 Chairing general meetings

67.1 If the Directors have appointed a Chairman, the Chairman shall chair general meetings if present and willing to do so.

67.2 If the Directors have not appointed a Chairman, or if the Chairman is unwilling to chair the meeting or is not present within ten minutes of the time at which a meeting was due to start:

67.2.1 the Directors present; or

67.2.2 (if no Directors are present), the meeting, must appoint a Director or shareholder to chair the meeting, and such appointment must be the first business of the meeting.

67.3 The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article 67 is referred to as the “Chairman of the Meeting”.

68 Attendance and speaking by Directors and non-shareholders

68.1 Directors may attend and speak at general meetings, whether or not they are shareholders.

68.2 The Chairman of the Meeting may permit other persons who are not:

68.2.1 shareholders of the Company; or

68.2.2 otherwise entitled to exercise the rights of shareholders in relation to general meetings, to attend and speak at a general meeting.

69 Adjournment

69.1 If the persons attending a general meeting within half an hour of the time at which the meeting was due to start do not constitute a quorum, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the Chairman of the Meeting must adjourn it.

69.2 The Chairman of the Meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if:

69.2.1 the meeting consents to an adjournment; or

69.2.2 the Chairman of the Meeting considers that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

69.3 The Chairman of the Meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

- 69.4 When adjourning a general meeting, the Chairman of the Meeting must specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the Directors.
- 69.5 If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the Company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given):
- 69.5.1 to the same persons to whom notice of the Company's general meetings is required to be given; and
 - 69.5.2 containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.
- 69.6 No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

Voting at General Meetings

70 Voting: general

A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with the Articles.

71 Errors and disputes

- 71.1 No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.
- 71.2 Any such objection must be referred to the Chairman of the Meeting, whose decision is final.

72 Poll votes

72.1 A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

- 72.1.1 in advance of the general meeting where it is to be put to the vote; or
- 72.1.2 at a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

72.2 A poll may be demanded by:

- 72.2.1 the Chairman of the Meeting;
- 72.2.2 the Directors;
- 72.2.3 two or more persons having the right to vote on the resolution; or

- 72.2.4 a person or persons representing not less than 10% of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution.

72.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if:

- 72.3.1 the poll has not yet been taken; and

- 72.3.2 the Chairman of the Meeting consents to the withdrawal.

72.4 Polls must be taken immediately and in such manner as the Chairman of the Meeting directs.

73 Content of proxy notices

73.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which:

- 73.1.1 states the name and address of the shareholder appointing the proxy;

- 73.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that shareholder's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

- 73.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the shareholder appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and

- 73.1.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

73.2 The Company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

73.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

74 Delivery of proxy notices

74.1 Proxy notices in hard copy form must be received at such place and by such deadline specified in the notice convening the meeting. If no place is specified, then the proxy notice must be received at the registered office of the Company for the time being. If no deadline is specified, proxy notices must be received, before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting or, if a poll is taken otherwise than at or on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting, at the time for the taking of the poll at which it is to be used.

74.2 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Company by or on behalf of that person.

- 74.3 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.
- 74.4 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.
- 74.5 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.
- 74.6 Any vote cast or poll demanded by a proxy shall not be invalidated by the previous death or insanity of the shareholder or by the revocation or termination of the appointment of the proxy or of the authority under which the appointment was made unless notice of such death, insanity, revocation or termination was received in writing at the place specified in the notice of meeting for the receipt of proxy notices (or, if no place is specified, the registered office for the time being) before the start of the meeting or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for the taking of the poll.

75 Amendments to resolutions

- 75.1 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- 75.1.1 notice of the proposed amendment is given to the Company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the Chairman of the Meeting may determine); and
 - 75.1.2 the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the Chairman of the Meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.
- 75.2 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if:
- 75.2.1 the Chairman of the Meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed; and
 - 75.2.2 the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- 75.3 If the Chairman of the Meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the Chairman of the Meeting's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

Part 5

Administrative Arrangements

76 Means of communication to be used

76.1 Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the Company.

76.2 Any notice, document or information (including a share certificate) which is sent or supplied by the Company in hard copy form, or in electronic form but to be delivered other than by electronic means, which is:

76.2.1 sent by hand and properly addressed shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient on the day of delivery;

76.2.2 sent by pre-paid post and properly addressed shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient at the expiration of 24 hours (or, where first class mail is not employed, 48 hours) after the time it was posted, and in proving such receipt it shall be sufficient to show that such notice, document or information was properly addressed and, in the case of post, pre-paid and posted.

76.3 Any notice, document or information which is sent or supplied by the Company by electronic means shall be deemed to have been received by the intended recipient 24 hours after it was transmitted, and in proving such receipt it shall be sufficient to show that such notice, document or information was properly addressed.

76.4 The accidental failure to send, or the non-receipt by any person entitled to, any notice of or other document or information relating to any meeting or other proceeding shall not invalidate the relevant meeting or proceeding.

76.5 Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.

76.6 A Director may agree with the Company that notices, documents or information sent to that Director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than that provided in this Article 767.

77 Company seals

77.1 Any common seal may only be used by the authority of the Directors.

77.2 The Directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.

77.3 Unless otherwise decided by the Directors, if the Company has a common seal and it is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by at least one authorised person in the presence of a witness who attests the signature.

77.4 For the purposes of this Article 77, an authorised person is:

77.4.1 any Director of the Company;

77.4.2 the Secretary; or

77.4.3 any person authorised by the Directors for the purpose of signing documents to which the common seal is applied.

77.5 The Company may exercise all powers conferred by the Companies Act 2006 with regard to having an official seal for use abroad and such powers shall be vested in the Directors.

78 No right to inspect accounts and other records

Except as provided by law or authorised by the Directors or an ordinary resolution of the Company, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a shareholder.

79 Provision for employees on cessation of business

The Directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a Director or former Director or shadow Director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary.

80 Bank mandates

The Directors may by majority decision or written resolution open and operate bank accounts and other facilities for banking and draw, accept, endorse, issue or execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques and other instruments, provided that such arrangements are in accordance with the 'Vodafone Group Governance and Policy Manual' and the 'Vodafone Group Treasury Policy (TQP01)' prevailing from time to time. They may further authorise such person or persons as they think fit to act as signatories to any bank account of the Company and may amend or remove such authorisation from time to time by resolution.

81 Authentication of documents

81.1 Any Director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the Directors for the purpose shall have power to authenticate:

81.1.1 any document affecting the constitution of the Company;

81.1.2 any resolution passed at a general meeting or at a meeting of the Directors or any committee; and

81.1.3 any book, record, document or account relating to the business of the Company, and to certify copies or extracts as true copies or extracts.

81.2 A document purporting to be a copy of any such resolution, or an extract from the minutes of any such meeting, which is certified shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons dealing with the Company that such resolution has been duly passed or, as the case may be, that any minute so extracted is a true and accurate record of proceedings at a duly constituted meeting.

Directors' Liabilities

82 Indemnity

82.1 Subject to Article 82.2, a Relevant Officer may be indemnified out of the Company's assets against:

82.1.1 any liability incurred by or attaching to that Officer in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company or an Associated Company;

82.1.2 any liability incurred by or attaching to that Officer in connection with the activities of the Company or an Associated Company in its capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme (as defined in Section 235(6) of the Companies Act 2006);

82.1.3 any other liability incurred by or attaching to that Officer as an officer of the Company or an Associated Company.

82.2 This Article 82 does not authorise any indemnity which would be prohibited or rendered void by any provision of the Companies Acts or by any other provision of law.

82.3 Where a Relevant Officer is indemnified against any liability in accordance with this Article, such indemnity may extend to all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him in relation thereto.

83 Insurance

83.1 The Directors shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance, at the expense of the Company, for the benefit of any Relevant Officer in respect of any Relevant Loss.

84 Defence expenditure

84.1 So far as may be permitted by the Companies Acts, the Company may:

84.1.1 provide a Relevant Officer with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in:

- (i) defending any criminal or civil proceedings in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him in relation to the Company or an Associated Company; or
- (ii) in connection with any application for relief under the provisions mentioned in Section 205(5) of the Companies Act 2006; and 84.1.2 do anything to enable any such Relevant Officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

84.2 The terms set out in Section 205(2) of the Companies Act 2006 shall apply to any provision of funds or other things done under Article 84.1.

84.3 So far as may be permitted by the Companies Acts, the Company:

84.3.1 may provide a Relevant Officer with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending himself in an investigation by a regulatory authority or against action proposed to be taken by a regulatory authority in connection with any alleged negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him in relation to the Company or any Associated Company; and 84.3.2 may do anything to enable any such Relevant Officer to avoid incurring such expenditure.

85 Overriding provisions

85.1 The Parent may at any time and from time to time:-

85.1.1 appoint any person to be a Director (whether to fill a vacancy or as an additional Director);

85.1.2 remove from office any Director howsoever appointed but so that if he holds an appointment to an executive office which thereby automatically determines such removal shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company; and

85.1.3 restrict any or all powers of the Directors in such respects and to such extent as the Parent may by notice to the Company from time to time prescribe.

85.2 Unless the Parent otherwise consents, exercise by the Directors of the Company's power to allot shares pursuant to Article 34 shall be restricted to allotments of shares to the Parent only.

85.3 Any such appointment, removal, consent or notice shall be in writing served on the Company and signed by the Parent. No person dealing with the Company shall be concerned to see or enquire as to whether the powers of the Directors have been in any way restricted hereunder or as to whether any requisite consent of the Parent has been obtained and no obligation incurred or security given or transaction effected by the Company to or with any third party shall be invalid or ineffectual unless the third party had at the time express notice that the incurring of such obligation or the giving of such security or the effecting of such transaction was in excess of the powers of the Directors.

- 85.4 To the extent of any inconsistency this Article shall have overriding effects as against all other provisions of these Articles.
- 85.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the Directors must always act in accordance with their fiduciary duties.
