All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Board or committee thereof or by any person acting as a member of the Board or such committee, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of any such member or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed or had duly continued in office and was qualified to be a member of the Board or such committee.

43. The Board shall cause proper minutes to be made of all appointments of officers made by the Board and of the proceedings of all meetings of the Company and of the Board and of any committee and all business transacted at such meetings, and any such minutes of any meeting, if purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such meeting, or by the Chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

44. A resolution in writing signed by all the members for the time being of the Board or of a committee who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or such committee shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or committee duly convened and constituted. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form including telex and facsimile transmission and signed by one or more of the Board or committee for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or committee.

45. A member of the Board or committee shall be treated as present at a meeting of the Board or committee notwithstanding that he is not physically present if he is in communication with the meeting by telephone or other telecommunication link. A meeting of the Board or committee may be held from time to time in any part of the world and, for the purposes of these Articles, meetings of the Board or committee shall include meetings held by telephone or any other form of telecommunications link provided that:-

- (a) all members of the Board or committee have received notice of the meeting and the means of communication to be employed therefor; and
- (b) the telephone or telecommunications link is so arranged that it is possible for each member of the Board or committee to hear and be heard by each other person participating in the meeting and the terms "meetings" and "meet" shall be construed accordingly.

DISQUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

46. The office of a member of the Board shall be vacated-

- (a) If he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangements or composition with his creditors generally.

- (b) If he becomes of unsound mind.
- (c) If by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office.
- (d) If he ceases to hold office by virtue of any provision of the Act or he becomes prohibited by the law from being a director of a company.
- (e) If his appointor ceases to be a Member of the Company.
- (f) If he ceases to be nominated by a Member.

47. Subject to the provisions of the Act and provided that he has disclosed to the Board the nature and extent of any interest of his, a member of the Board notwithstanding his office:

- (a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested;
- (b) may be a member of the Board or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested; and
- (c) shall not, by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

48. For the purposes of Article 47 above:

- (a) a general notice given to the Board that a director is to be regarded as having an interest of the nature and extent specified in the Notice in any transaction or arrangement in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a disclosure that the director has an interest in any such transaction of the nature and extent so specified; and

- (b) an interest of which a member of the Board has no knowledge and of which it is unreasonable to expect him to have knowledge shall not be treated as an interest of his.

ALTERNATE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

49. Any Member may appoint and remove any person as alternate member of the Board to the members of the Board which that Member appointed under Article 29 above.

50. An alternate member of the Board shall in the absence of the principal member of the Board be entitled to attend and vote at all meetings of the Board and at all meetings of committees of the Board of which his principal is a member. Such alternate member of the Board shall perform all the functions of his principal in his absence but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for his services.

51. An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director if his principal director ceases to be a director.

52. Any appointment or removal of an alternate member of the Board shall be by notice to the Company signed by or on behalf of the Member making or revoking the appointment and shall take effect when delivered to the Secretary at the Office.

53. Save as otherwise provided in these Articles, an alternate director shall not be deemed to be a member of the Board and shall be deemed to be the agent of his principal member of the Board but shall be responsible for his own acts and defaults.

SECRETARY

54. Subject to the provisions of the Act the Secretary shall be appointed by the Board for such time at such remuneration and upon such conditions as the Board may think fit, and any Secretary so appointed may be removed by the Board. The provisions of sections 283 and 284 of the Act shall apply and be observed. The Board may from time to time by resolution appoint an assistant or deputy Secretary, and any person so appointed may act in place of the Secretary if there be no Secretary or no Secretary capable of acting.

THE SEAL

55. (A) No instrument shall be executed by the Company under Seal otherwise than by the authority of the Board. The members of the Board may determine who may execute any instrument, or execute or sign any agreement; but, except as otherwise determined, execution shall be by any two members of the Board or by any member of the Board and the Secretary.

(B) Any instrument signed by a member of the Board and by the Secretary or by any two members of the Board and expressed (in whatever form of words) to be executed by the Company shall have the same effect as if executed under the Seal.

ACCOUNTS

56. The Company shall cause proper books of account to be kept in accordance with the Act. Proper books shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company and to explain its transactions.

57. The books of account shall be kept at the Office, or subject to sub-section (2) of section 221 of the Act, at such other place or places as the Board shall think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the members of the Board and the Members of the Company.

58. At the Annual General Meeting in every year the Board shall lay before the Company a proper income and expenditure account for the last preceding financial year together with a proper balance sheet made up as at the last day of such financial year.

Every such balance sheet shall be accompanied by proper reports of the Board and the Auditors, and copies of such account, balance sheet and reports (all of which shall be framed in accordance with any statutory requirements for the time being in force) and of any other documents required by law to be annexed or attached thereto or to accompany the same shall, not less than twenty-one clear days before the date of the meeting, be sent to the Auditors and to all other persons entitled to receive notices of General Meetings in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be served. Provided that if copies of the documents aforementioned are sent less than twenty-one clear days before the date of the meeting they shall, notwithstanding that fact, be deemed to have been duly sent if so agreed by all the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. The Auditors' report shall be open to inspection and be read before the meeting.

AUDIT

59. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the income and expenditure account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified Auditor or Auditors.

60. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 236 and 237 of the Act.

61. A balance sheet shall be signed on behalf of the Board by two members of the Board of the Company and the Auditors' report shall be attached to the balance sheet, and the report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting, and shall be open to inspection by any member.

NOTICES

62. A notice may be served by the Company upon any Member, and by any Member, members of the Board or any committee upon the Company either personally, by telex or by facsimile transmission, or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter, addressed to such Member or to the Company (as the case may be) at his/her registered address as appearing in the register of Members, or at the Office.

63. Any Member described in the register of Members by an address not within the United Kingdom, who shall from time to time give the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notice may be served upon him/her, shall be entitled to have notices served upon him/her at such address, but, save as aforesaid and as provided by the Act, only those Members who are described in the register of Members by an address within the United Kingdom shall be entitled to receive notices from the Company.

64. Any notice, if served by post, shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the letter containing the same was put into the post, and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and put into the post office as a prepaid letter.

INDEMNITY

65. (A) Every member of the Board, committee of the Board, Secretary and other officer or servant of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against, and it shall be the duty of the Board out of the funds of the Company to pay, all costs, losses and expenses, including travelling expenses which any such officer or servant may reasonably incur or become liable to by reason of any contract entered into or act or thing done by him/her as such officer or servant or in any way in the discharge of his/her duties. But this Article shall only have effect in so far as its provisions are not avoided by Section 310 of the Act.

(B) The Company may purchase and maintain for any officer or auditor of the Company insurance against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the Company.

DISSOLUTION

66. The provisions of Clause 6 of the Memorandum of Association relating to the winding up and dissolution of the Company shall have the same validity as if they were repeated in these presents.
