Notes to the Abbreviated Accounts for the year ended 28th February 2013
continued

The finance element of the rental payment is charged to the profit and loss account so as to produce a constant periodic rate of charge on the net obligation outstanding in each period

1 5 Operating Leases

Rentals applicable to operating leases where substantially all of the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are charged to Profit and Loss Account as incurred

1 6 Deferred Taxation

The charge for taxation takes into account taxation deferred as a result of timing differences between the treatment of certain items for taxation and accounting purposes. In general, deferred taxation is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the Balance Sheet date. However, deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that the Directors consider that it is more likely than not that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits. Deferred taxation is measured on a non-discounted basis at the average tax rates that would apply when the timing differences are expected to reverse, based on tax rates and laws that have been enacted by the Balance Sheet date.

1 7 Pensions

The Company operates a defined Contribution Pension Scheme and the pension charge represents the amounts payable by the Company to the fund in respect of the year
