NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (CONTINUED)

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MARCH 2015

4 Share capital	2015 £	2014 £
Allotted, called up and fully paid
291,812 Ordinary shares of £1 each	291,812	291,812
662,845 "A" Ordinary shares of £1 each	662,845	662,845
50,550 Preference shares of £1 each	50,550	50,550
	1,005,207	1,005,207

Rights to Dividends

The holders of ordinary shares and "A" ordinary shares do not have any rights to dividends until the financial period following redemption of the preference shares (see below). At that time, both classes of ordinary shares gain the right, after payment of preference dividends and arrears, to a cumulative participating preferential dividend equal to 40% of the profit after tax shown in the financial statements of the relevant financial period.

On the 30th November 2006 the holders of the preference shares waived their entitlement to the fixed cumulative preferential dividend. The shares are classified as equity rather than debt under FRS 25.

The holders of preference shares are not entitled to any further participation in the profit of the company.

Redemption

The preference shares are redeemable in the following instances:

- on the earlier of a change of control, a listing on the London Stock Exchange or a sale of the company.
- A premium of £0.99 per share together with any arrears of dividend will be paid on redemption.

Conversion

The "A" ordinary shares will convert to the same number of fully paid ordinary shares immediately prior to any listing or sale.

Winding Up

On winding up or other return of capital (other than redemption of preference shares) assets available for distribution will be applied in the following order:

- payment of arrears of preference dividends;
- payment of the issue price to holders of preference shares;
- payment of arrears and accruals of participating dividends to holders of "A" ordinary shares;
- payment of the issue price to holders of "A" ordinary shares;
- payment of arrears and accruals of participating dividends and the issue price to holders of ordinary shares;
- distributing the balance pari passu amongst holders of "A" ordinary shares and ordinary shares.

Voting

Holders of ordinary and "A" ordinary shares have one vote for each share held. Preference shareholders will not have voting rights at general meetings unless the company is in default of its Articles with regard to preference share rights. The main circumstances when this provision will apply are when preference share dividends are not paid within 90 days of the due date, the preference shares have not been redeemed on a due date, or the company is meeting to consider winding up or a reduction of capital. The preference shareholders will then have one vote for each share held whilst the default continues.
