Report of the Independent Auditors to
Mossack Fonseca & Co (UK) Limited
Under Section 247B of the Companies Act 1985

We have examined the abbreviated financial statements on pages 3 & 4, together with the full financial statements of the company for the year ended 31 December 2000 prepared under Section 226 of the Companies Act 1985.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

The directors are responsible for preparing the abbreviated financial statements in accordance with Section 246 of the Companies Act 1985. It is our responsibility to form an independent opinion as to whether the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated financial statements prepared in accordance with Section 246(5) & (6) of the Act to the Registrar of Companies and whether the financial statements to be delivered are properly prepared in accordance with those provisions and to report our opinion to you.

Basis of audit opinion

We have carried out the procedures we consider necessary to confirm, by reference to the financial statements, that the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated financial statements and that the abbreviated financial statements to be delivered are properly prepared. The scope of our work for the purpose of this report did not include examining or dealing with events after the date of our report on the full financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion the company is entitled to deliver abbreviated financial statements prepared in accordance with Sections 246(5) & (6) of the Companies Act 1985, and the abbreviated financial statements on pages 3 & 4 are properly prepared in accordance with those provisions.

Notes to the Abbreviated Financial Statements for the year ended 31 December 2000

1 ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (Effective March 2000).

Turnover

Turnover represents net invoiced sales of goods, excluding VAT.

Stock

Stock is valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of the transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account in arriving at the operating result.

Deferred Expenditure

Advertising & marketing expenditure incurred is matched with the consequent income generated. Any expenditure which, in the directors' opinion, can be identified as relating to a subsequent accounting period, is carried forward. The remainder is written off to profit and loss account.
