1. STATUTORY INFORMATION

Leipold (UK) Limited is a private company, limited by shares, registered in England and Wales. The company's registered number and registered office address can be found on the Company Information page.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" including the provisions of Section 1A "Small Entities" and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Taxation

Taxation for the year comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the Income Statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current or deferred taxation assets and liabilities are not discounted.

Current tax is recognised at the amount of tax payable using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all timing differences that have originated but not reversed at the balance sheet date.

Timing differences arise from the inclusion of income and expenses in tax assessments in periods different from those in which they are recognised in financial statements. Deferred tax is measured using tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the year end and that are expected to apply to the reversal of the timing difference.

Unrelieved tax losses and other deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that it is probable that they will be recovered against the reversal of deferred tax liabilities or other future taxable profits.

Foreign currencies

Assets and liabilities in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into sterling at the rate of exchange ruling at the date of transaction. Exchange differences are taken into account in arriving at the operating result.

Hire purchase and leasing commitments

Rentals paid under operating leases are charged to profit or loss on a straight line basis over the period of the lease.

Going concern

Following the significant reduction in sales, with the loss of existing customers within the electronics industry in the proceeding years, the company again has no sales in the year.

The company still has the intention to, but has not yet had the opportunity to, establish a UK sales force with a view to concentrating the business on supplying its products to manufacturers and end users within the automotive industry.

The lack of sales has significantly affected the operating cash flow of the company. The largest supplier to the company is from its fellow group company and as a result the company has not been able to settle their credit in the normal terms.

As a result of this ongoing situation, the company is increasingly reliant on the support of its parent and fellow group companies. This support is required in the form of the continuation of supply of goods and the extension of favourable credit terms for their supply.

The company made a loss in the year of £14,616. Of the company's liabilities as at 30 September 2019, £592,976 are due to group companies.

The directors have obtained letters from the parent company and its fellow group companies, pledging to provide sufficient trading terms to the company, in order that it can meet its day to day working capital requirements for a period of at least twelve months from the date of these financial statements.

The directors have concluded that material uncertainties exist, that cast significant doubt upon the company's ability to continue as a going concern and therefore the company may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. However, given the planned efforts to secure future sales and with the support of its parent and fellow group companies, the directors continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting.

Had the accounts not been prepared on a going concern basis, there would have been no restatement of the result for the year or the balance sheet as at 30 September 2019 required.
