ASHTON PLACE MANAGEMENT COMPANY LIMITED
STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS RESPONSIBILITIES

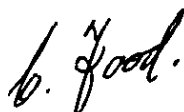

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

On behalf of the board

ACCOUNTANTS REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF ASHTON PLACE MANAGEMENT COMPANY LIMITED

We report on the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2006 set out on pages 4 to 7.

Respective Responsibilities of Directors and Reporting Accountants

As described on page two the company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements, and they consider that the company is exempt from an audit. It is our responsibility to carry out procedures designed to enable us to report our opinion.

Basis of Opinion

Our work was conducted in accordance with the Statement of Standards for Reporting Accountants, and so our procedures consisted of comparing the financial statements with the accounting records kept by the company and making such limited enquiries of the officers of the company as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report. These procedures provide only the assurance expressed in our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 30 June 2006 and of its profit for the year then ended and have been properly prepared in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985 applicable to small companies.

The accounts for the financial year in question are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 221 of the Companies Act 1985. Having regard to and on the basis of the information in those accounting records, those accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the provision of the Act specified in subsection (6) of section 249C so far as applicable to the company.

Having regard to and on the basis of the information in the accounting records the company satisfied the requirements of section 249A(4) or (5) for the financial year in question and did not fall within section 249B(1)(a) to (f) at any time within that financial year.
