Directors' Report

For the year ended 30 September 2003

The board submits its report and the financial statements of the company for the year ended 30 September 2003.

Principal Activities

The company did not trade during the year.

Directors And Their Interests

The following directors have held office since 1 October 2002:

R B Copus
J L Ridd

No director had any interest in the shares of the company during the year and up to the date of this report.

Directors' Statement of Responsibilities

The directors are required by United Kingdom company law to present financial statements for each accounting period, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the period, and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the directors are required to select and apply suitable accounting policies consistently and to make reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates. The directors are required to state whether applicable Accounting Standards have been followed. The financial statements have to be prepared on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business. The directors are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the company at any time, and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for the systems of internal control, for safeguarding the assets of the company, and for preventing and detecting fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

The company, being dormant, is entitled to exemptions under the Companies Act 1985 permitting it not to appoint auditors.
