58. The Council shall cause accounting records to be kept in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
59. The accounting records shall be kept at the registered office of the Company or, subject to the provisions of the Act, at such other place or places as the Council thinks fit and shall always be open to the inspection of the officers of the Company.
60. The Council shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of the members not being members of the Council and no member (not being a member of the Council) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Council except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Council or by the Company in General Meeting.
61. The Company shall from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Act, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in General Meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (if any) and reports as are referred to in those provisions.
62. A copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in General Meeting, together with a copy of the auditor's report and Council's report, shall not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member of (and every holder of debentures of) the Company at their registered address. Provided that this Article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent any person of whose address the Company is not aware or to more than one of the joint holders of any debentures.

AUDITORS

63. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

NOTICE

64. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within the Kingdom) to the address, if any, within the United Kingdom supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice and to have been effected in the case of the notice of a meeting at the expiration of 24 hours after the letter containing the same is posted and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.
65. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:
- (a) every member except those members who (having no registered address within the United Kingdom) have not supplied to the Company an address within the United Kingdom for the giving of notices to them;
  - (b) every person being a legal personal representative or a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his death or bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting;
  - (c) the auditor for the time being of the Company;
  - (d) each member of the Council.

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

DISSOLUTION

66. Clause 7 of the Memorandum of Association relating to the winding up and dissolution of the Company shall have effect as if the provisions thereof were repeated in these Articles.

RULES OR BYE LAWS

67. The Council or the Company in General Meeting may from time to time make such Rules or Bye Laws as it may deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Company and for the purposes of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it may by such Rules or Bye Laws regulate:
- (i) The admission and classification of members of the Company and the rights and privileges of such members and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;
  - (ii) The conduct of the members of the Company in relation to one another and to the Company's servants;
  - (iii) The setting aside of the whole or part or parts of the Company's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
  - (iv) The procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Council and Committees of the Council in so far as such procedure is not regulated by these Articles;
  - (v) and generally all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of Company Rules or Bye Laws.

The Company in General Meeting shall have power to alter or repeal the Rules or Bye Laws and to make additions thereto and the Council shall adopt such means as they deem sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Company all such Rules or Bye Laws which so long as they shall be in force, shall be binding on all members of the Company. Provided, nevertheless, that no Rule or Bye Law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company.

INDEMNITY

68. In the execution of his duties and the exercise of his rights in relation to the affairs of the Company (and without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may otherwise be entitled) every member of the Council shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any costs, losses, claims, actions or other liabilities suffered or incurred by him and arising by reason of any improper investment made by or for the Company in good faith (so long as he shall have sought professional advice before making or procuring the making of such investment) or by reason of any negligence or fraud of any agent engaged or employed by him in good faith (provided reasonable supervision shall have been exercised) notwithstanding the fact that the engagement or employment of such agent was strictly not necessary or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by him or by reason of any other matter or other than deliberate fraud, wrongdoing or wrongful omission on the part of the member of the Council who sought to be made liable. In this connection the Company may pursuant to Section 310(3) of the Act purchase and maintain indemnity insurance cover for its Council of Management and other officers provided that such policy is purchased and maintained solely to protect the Council of Management and the other officers of the Company from personal liability for acts either properly undertaken in the administration of the company or undertaken in breach of trust, but under honest mistake.
