In the directors' opinion the company was entitled under section 249A(1) of the Companies Act 1985 to exemption from the audit of its accounts for the year ended 30 September 2006. No member of the company has deposited a notice under section 249B(2) requiring an audit of these accounts.

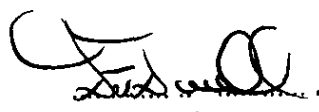

The directors are responsible for ensuring that the company keeps accounting records which comply with section 221 of the Act and for preparing accounts which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of each financial year and of its profit or loss of each year in accordance with the requirements of section 226 of the Act and which otherwise comply with its requirements, so far as applicable to the company.

In preparing these accounts the director has taken advantage of special exemptions available to small companies on the grounds that the company qualifies as a small company for the year ended 30 September 2006.
