Warning to all applicants

It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s)/the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company. *

This form must be signed by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

① Please read the guidance on our website www.companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1003 or 1004 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

What to do next

Notify all parties.

Please ensure that you send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

Please also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence. It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company.

If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website: www.companieshouse.gov.uk

1. The company has a long history of providing high-quality products and services to its customers. It has a strong reputation for reliability and customer satisfaction.

1. The first step in the process of identifying and analyzing the assets of a company is to identify the assets that are owned by the company. This includes both tangible and intangible assets. Tangible assets include physical assets such as property, equipment, and inventory.
 Intangible assets include non-physical assets such as patents, trademarks, and goodwill. Once the assets have been identified, the next step is to determine their value. This can be done by comparing the assets to similar assets in the market or by using other valuation methods.
 Finally, the assets should be classified into categories based on their nature and use. This will help to determine which assets are most important to the company and which ones can be sold or disposed of without causing significant harm to the company's operations.
