STATEMENT OF THE DIRECTOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the director to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the director is required to

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The director is responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

These accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and are based on financial statements prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective March 2000).

Going Concern

The accounts have been drawn up on the going concern basis. The company owes the Director £3141 and therefore dependent upon the continued support of the Director. The Director does not consider his support likely to be withdrawn.

If the going concern basis was not appropriate, adjustments would have to be made to reduce the value of assets to their recoverable amounts, to provide for additional liabilities that might arise and to reclassify fixed assets as current assets.

Turnover

Turnover represents the value of goods and services provided
