Directors' report

The directors present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2018.

Results and dividends

The company made no profit or loss in the year ended 31 December 2018 (2017 - £nil).

No dividend was paid during the year (2017 - £nil) and the directors do not recommend the payment of a final dividend (2017 - £nil).

Ownership change

On 14 June 2018, AT&T Inc. acquired the previous ultimate parent undertaking Time Warner Inc. and became the ultimate parent undertaking.

Principal activity

The company has not traded during the current accounting year nor the preceding accounting year.

Going concern

No material uncertainties that cast significant doubt about the ability of the company to continue as a going concern have been identified by the directors. On the basis of their assessment of the company's financial position the company's directors have reasonable expectations that the company will be able to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus, they continue to adopt the going concern basis for preparing the annual financial statements.

Directors

The directors who served during the period were as follows:

W A Ogilvie
L Klein

Except as noted above, all directors served throughout the year and are still directors at the date of this report.

Directors qualifying third party indemnity provisions

The company may indemnify one or more directors of the company against liability in respect of proceedings brought by third parties, subject to the conditions set out in the Companies Act 2006 and the company may purchase insurance for this purpose. AT&T Inc. (formerly Time Warner Inc.) has purchased a Directors and Officers liability insurance policy for the benefit of the company and its directors and such policy was in force during the year and is in force as at the date of approving the Directors' Report.

Auditor

For the year ended 31 December 2018 the company was entitled to exemption under section 480 of the Companies Act 2006.

Members have not required the company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.

Small companies' exemption

In preparing the Directors' Report, the directors have taken advantage of the small companies' exemption under section 415(A) of the Companies Act 2006. The directors have also taken the exemption under section 414(B) not to prepare a Strategic Report.

Statement of directors' responsibilities in respect of the financial statements

The directors are responsible for preparing the Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently; and
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
