2 Information about people with significant control

The company elects to keep information about people with significant control on the public register instead of in its own registers.

Keeping this information on the public register will make the full date of birth of each individual PSC publicly available. This information will remain part of the public record even if the election is withdrawn

You'll need to give us PSC information at the same time as this form. Please complete and return a confirmation statement (CS01 statement and any relevant Parts) with this form. To update PSC information once the election is in force, use the appropriate form ①

- ① PSC01 Notice of individual person with significant control
- PSC02 Notice of relevant legal entity (RLE)
- PSC03 Notice of other registrable person (ORP)
