MEMBERS

- 2 2.1 The subscribers to the memorandum and such other persons or organisations as are admitted to membership in accordance with the rules made under Article 72 shall be members of the Charity. No person shall be admitted a member of the Charity unless his application for membership is approved by the trustees, nor if as a result of such admission the number of members who are associated persons would exceed the prescribed percentage of the total number².
- 2.2 Unless the trustees or the Charity in general meeting shall make other provision under Article 72 the trustees may in their absolute discretion permit any member of the Charity to retire, provided that after such retirement the number of members is not less than two.

- 2.3 A member who was not an associated person at the time of his appointment as a member shall retire automatically and shall be deemed to have retired from membership of the Charity on the day preceding the day on which he becomes an associated person if (but only if) by reason of his becoming an associated person, the number of members who are associated persons would exceed the prescribed percentage of the total number of members.
- 2.4 A member who is an associated person shall retire automatically and be deemed to retire from membership forthwith if the number of members who are associated persons, for any reason whatsoever, exceeds the prescribed percentage of the total number of members. In such event, the smallest number of members who are associated persons shall retire as shall result in the number of members who are associated persons ceasing to exceed the prescribed percentage of the total number of members and the member or members to retire shall be (unless all the associated persons otherwise agree among themselves before such event) the member or members who shall have been longest a member or members since their last appointment as such and as between associated persons who became members on the same day, the associated person to retire shall be (unless the relevant associated persons otherwise agree among themselves before such event) the associated person whose last name begins with the letter nearest A and if there are two or more such associated persons, the older or oldest shall retire.³

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 3 The Charity shall hold an annual general meeting each year in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Charity and that of the next: Provided that so long as the Charity holds its first annual general meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of incorporation or in the following year. The annual general meeting shall be held at such times and places as the trustees shall appoint. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.

- 4 The trustees may call general meetings, and, on the requisition of members pursuant to the provisions of the Act, shall forthwith proceed to convene an extraordinary general meeting for a date not later than eight weeks after receipt of the requisition. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient trustees to call a general meeting, any trustee or any member of the Charity may call a general meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 5 An annual general meeting and an extraordinary general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution appointing a person as a trustee shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice. All other extraordinary general meetings shall be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed:

- 5.1 in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote; and
- 5.2 in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent of the total voting rights at the meeting of all the members.

The notice shall specify the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and, in the case of an annual general meeting, shall specify the meeting as such.

The notice shall be given to all the members and to the trustees and auditors.

- 6 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 7 No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present. Two persons entitled to vote upon the business to be transacted, each being a member or a duly authorised representative of a member organisation or one tenth of the total number of such persons for the time being, whichever is the greater, shall constitute a quorum.
- 8 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such time and place as the trustees may determine.
- 9 The chairman, if any, of the trustees or in his absence some other trustee nominated by the trustees shall preside as chairman of the meeting, but if neither the chairman nor such other trustee (if any) be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting and willing to act, the trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chairman and, if there is only one trustee present and willing to act, he shall be chairman.
- 10 If no trustee is willing to act as chairman, or if no trustee is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 11 A trustee shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting.
- 12 The chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had adjournment not taken place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

- 13 A resolution put to the vote of a meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a poll may be demanded:
- 13.1 by the chairman; or
- 13.2 by at least two members having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- 13.3 by a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting and a demand by a person as proxy for a member shall be the same as a demand by the member.
- 14 Unless a poll is duly demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 15 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken but only with the consent of the chairman. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.
- 16 A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineer (who need not be members) and fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 17 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman shall be entitled to a casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
- 18 A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

- 19 No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 20 Subject to Article 17, every member shall have one vote.
- 21 No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all moneys then payable by him to the Charity have been paid.
- 22 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
- 23 A vote given or poll demanded by the duly authorised representative of a member organisation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous determination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll unless notice of the determination was received by the Charity at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll taken otherwise than on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) the time appointed for taking the poll.
- 24 Any organisation which is a member of the Charity may by resolution of its Council or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Charity, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the organisation which he represents as the organisation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Charity.

- 30.2 An associated person shall not be appointed as a trustee otherwise than by Birmingham City Council⁵

POWERS OF TRUSTEES

- 32 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the memorandum and the articles and to any directions given by special resolution, the business of the Charity shall be managed by the trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. No alteration of the memorandum or the articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this article shall not be limited by any special power given to the trustees by the articles and a meeting of trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the trustees.
- 33 In addition to all powers hereby expressly conferred upon them and without detracting from the generality of their powers under the articles the trustees shall have the following powers, namely:
- 33.1 to expend the funds of the Charity in such manner as they shall consider most beneficial for the achievement of the objects and to invest in the name of the Charity such part of the funds as they may see fit and direct the same or transposition of any such investments and to expend the proceeds of any such sale in furtherance of the objects of the Charity;
- 33.2 to enter into contracts on behalf of the Charity.

Article 30.2 was inserted by Special Resolution passed on 29.11.1996

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF TRUSTEES

- 34 At the first annual general meeting all the trustees shall retire from office, and at every subsequent annual general meeting one-third of the trustees who are subject to retirement by rotation or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one third shall retire from office; but, if there is only one trustee who is subject to retirement by rotation, he shall retire.
- 35 Subject to the provisions of the Act, the trustees to retire by rotation shall be those who have been longest in office since their last appointment or reappointment, but as between persons who became or were last reappointed trustees on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.
- 36 If the Charity at the meeting at which a trustee retires by rotation, does not fill the vacancy the retiring trustee shall, if willing to act, be deemed to have been reappointed unless at the meeting it is resolved not to fill the vacancy or unless a resolution for the reappointment of the trustee is put to the meeting and lost.
- 37 No person other than a trustee retiring by rotation shall be appointed or reappointed a trustee at any general meeting unless:
- 37.1 he is recommended by the trustees; or
- 37.2 not less than fourteen nor more than thirty-five clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, notice executed by a member qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Charity of the intention to propose that person for appointment or reappointment stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Charity's register of trustees together with a notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or reappointed.
- 38 No person may be appointed as a trustee:
- 38.1 unless he has attained the age of 18 years; or

- 38.2 in circumstances such that, had he already been a trustee, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 47.
- 39 Not less than seven nor more than twenty-eight clear days before the date appointed for holding a general meeting notice shall be given to all persons who are entitled to receive notice of the meeting of any person (other than a trustee retiring by rotation at the meeting) who is recommended by the trustees for appointment or reappointment as a trustee at the meeting or in respect of whom notice has been duly given to the Charity of the intention to propose him at the meeting for appointment or reappointment as a trustee. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed or reappointed, be required to be included in the Charity's register of trustees.
- 40 Subject as aforesaid, the Charity may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a trustee either to fill a vacancy or as an additional trustee and may also determine the rotation in which any additional trustees are to retire.
- 41 The trustees may appoint a person who is willing to act to be a trustee either to fill a vacancy or as an additional trustee provided that the appointment does not cause the number of trustees to exceed any number fixed by or in accordance with the articles as the maximum number of trustees. A trustee so appointed shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting and shall not be taken into account in determining the trustees who are to retire by rotation at the meeting. If not reappointed at such annual general meeting, he shall vacate office at the conclusion thereof.
- 42 Subject as aforesaid, a trustee who retires at an annual general meeting may, if willing to act, be reappointed.

- 43.1 have one nominee of his choice appointed to act as a trustee; and

- 43.2 to replace from time to time the trustee nominated by him.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

- 47 A trustee shall cease to hold office if he
- 47.1 ceases to be a trustee by virtue of any provision in the Act or is disqualified from acting as a trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision);
- 47.2 becomes incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing and administering his own affairs;
- 47.3 resigns his office by notice to the Charity (but only if at least two trustees will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect);

- 47.4 is absent without the permission of the trustees from all their meetings held within a period of six months and the trustees resolve that his office be vacated;
- 47.5 in the case of a trustee appointed by a Nominating Member pursuant to Article 43, is removed from office by notice served pursuant to Article 44; or
- 47.6 not being an associated person at the time of his appointment as a trustee becomes an associated person⁶
- 48 A trustee who is an associated person shall vacate office forthwith if the number of trustees who are associated persons for any reason whatsoever exceeds the prescribed percentage of the total number of trustees. In such event the smallest number of trustees who are associated persons shall vacate office as shall result in the number of trustees who are associated persons ceasing to exceed the prescribed percentage of the total number of trustees and the trustee or trustees to retire shall be (unless all the relevant associated persons otherwise agree among themselves before such event) the trustee or trustees who shall have been longest a trustee or trustees since their last appointment as such and as between associated persons who became trustees on the same day, the associated person to retire shall be (unless the relevant associated persons otherwise agree among themselves) the associated person whose last name begins with the letter nearest A and if there are 2 or more such associated persons the older or oldest person shall retire⁷

⁶ Article 47.6 was inserted by Special Resolution passed on 29.11.1996

⁷ Article 48 was inserted by Special Resolution passed on 29.11.1996

- 50 The trustees shall have power to insure suitably in respect of public liability and employer's liability.
- 51 The trustees shall have power to provide indemnity insurance to cover the liability of the trustees which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to them in respect of any negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty of which they may be guilty in relation to the Charity. Provided that any such insurance shall not extend to any claim arising from any act or omission which the trustees knew to be a breach of trust or breach of duty or which was committed by the trustees in reckless disregard of whether it was a breach of trust or breach of duty or not and provided also that any such insurance shall not extend to the costs of an unsuccessful defence to a criminal prosecution brought against the trustees in their capacity as directors of the Charity.

TRUSTEES' APPOINTMENTS

- 52 Subject to the provisions of the Act and to Clause 5 of the memorandum:-
- 52.1 the trustees may appoint one or more of their number to the unremunerated office of the managing director or to any other unremunerated executive office under the Charity. PROCEEDINGS OF TRUSTEES

54 Subject to the provisions of the articles, the trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit. A trustee may, and the secretary at the request of a trustee shall, call a meeting of the trustees. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting to a trustee who is absent from the United Kingdom. Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

55 At any meeting of the trustees and of any committee of the trustees each trustee who is an associated person shall have one vote and each trustee who is not an associated person shall have one vote or if greater a number of votes (including fractions of a vote) calculated by reference to the following formula:

$$\frac{5x + 1}{Y}$$

where

"x" is the number of trustees present at the meeting who are associated persons; and

"y" is the number of trustees present at the meeting who are not associated persons⁸

56 The quorum for the transaction of the business of the trustees may be fixed by the trustees but shall not be less than one third of their number or two trustees, whichever is the greater.

- 59 The trustees may appoint one of more committees consisting of three or more trustees for the purpose of making an inquiry or supervising or performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the trustees would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a committee: provided that all acts and proceedings of any such committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the trustees.
- 60 All acts done by a meeting of trustees, or of a committee of trustees, shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was a defect in the appointment of any trustee or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or where not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a trustee and had been entitled to vote.
- 61 A resolution in writing, signed by all the trustees entitled to receive notice of a meeting of trustees or of a committee of trustees, shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of trustees or (as the case may be) a committee of trustees duly convened and held. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the same form, each signed by one or more of the trustees.
- 62 Any bank account in which any part of the assets of the Charity is deposited shall be operated by the trustees and shall indicate the name of the Charity. All cheques and orders for the payment of money from such account shall be signed by at least two trustees or by one trustee and the secretary.

ANNUAL RETURN

- 68 The trustees shall comply with their obligations under the Charities Act 1993 (or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that Act) with regard to the preparation of an annual return and its transmission to the Commissioners.

NOTICES

- 69 Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to the articles shall be in writing except that a notice calling a meeting of the trustees need not be in writing.
- 70 The Charity may give any notice to a member either personally or by sending it by post in a prepaid envelope addressed to the member at his registered address or by leaving it at that address. A member whose registered address is not within the United Kingdom and who gives to the company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be given to him shall be entitled to have notices given to him at that address, but otherwise no such member shall be entitled to receive any notice from the Charity.
- 71 A member present in person at any meeting of the Charity shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where necessary, of the purposes for which it was called.

INDEMNITY

- 73 Subject to the provisions of the Act every trustee or other officer or auditor of the Charity shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Charity against any liability incurred by him in that capacity in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the court from liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Charity.

RULES

- 72.1 The trustees may from time to time make such rules or bye laws as they may deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Charity and for the purposes of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, they may by such rules or bye laws regulate:
- 72.1.1 the admission and classification of members of the Charity (including the admission of organisations to membership) and the rights and privileges of such members, and the conditions of membership and the terms on which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;

 - 72.1.5 generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.
- 72.2 The Charity in a general meeting shall have power to alter, add to or repeal the rules or bye laws and the trustees shall adopt such means as they think sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Charity all such rules or bye laws, which shall be binding on all members of the Charity. Provided that no rule or bye law shall be inconsistent with, or shall effect or repeal anything contained in, the memorandum or the articles.
