The declaration of solvency, sworn by the directors prior to the commencement of the liquidation, showed a debt totalling £938,487 due from Cullum Capital Ventures Limited ("Cullum"), the Company's immediate parent. The debt has been distributed by set off (see "Distributions" below).

A notice to creditors to prove their claims in the liquidation was advertised in the London Gazette on 9 July 2019. No creditors were forthcoming as a result of this advertisement, however HM Revenue & Customs ("HMRC") did issue an interim claim in respect of PAYE (see "Tax" below).

Tax

Corporation Tax

The Company's tax advisors advised that the Company had dormant corporation tax status. Following their appointment, the Joint Liquidators sought and received confirmation from HM Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") that the Company had no outstanding corporation tax returns or liabilities, that it would not raise enquiries into any pre or post liquidation periods and that it had no objection to the Liquidators proceeding to finalise the liquidation.

PAYE and VAT

As referred to above, HMRC issued an interim claim in the liquidation in the sum of £570.32. The claim related to a PAYE Class 6 Settlement for the 2001/02 period and was settled in full plus statutory interest at the official rate.

HMRC subsequently provided assurance that it had no further claim for VAT or PAYE.

Distributions

On 20 March 2020, the Joint Liquidators declared a first and final distribution of the assets of the Company to Cullum, as the sole beneficial shareholder of the Company.

The distribution was at the rate of £1 per £1 Ordinary share and was effected by set off against the debt of £938,487 due to the Company by Cullum.

Joint Liquidators' remuneration and expenses

A written resolution was passed on 20 June 2019 that the remuneration of the Joint Liquidators be fixed at their normal charging rates according to the time properly spent by them and members of their staff in attending to matters arising in the winding up of the Company.

In the event, the Joint Liquidators' remuneration and expenses totalling £2,000 has been paid by another group company, Ardonagh Services Limited.
