7. The Council may from time to time appoint Honorary members on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate. Such Honorary members shall not be entitled to vote.
8. Unless the members of the Council or the Company in General Meeting shall make other provision pursuant to the powers contained in Article 67 the Council members may in their absolute discretion permit any member of the company to retire provided that after such retirement the number of members is not less than two.

GENERAL MEETINGS

9. The Company shall each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. Provided that so long as the Company holds its first Annual General Meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation, it need not hold it in the year of its incorporation or in the following year. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Council shall appoint. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
10. The Council may, whenever they think fit, convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, and Extraordinary General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by the Act. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient members of the Council to form a quorum, any member of the Council or any two members of the Company may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

11. An Annual General Meeting and a meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by at least twenty-one clear days' notice in writing. Other meetings shall be called by at least fourteen clear days' notice in writing. The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under the Articles of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company: PROVIDED THAT a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:
 - (a) in the case of the Annual General Meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote; and
 - (b) in the case of any other meeting, by a majority of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the members.
12. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings of that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

13. The business to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall include the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the reports of the Council and auditors, the election of members of the Council in the place of those retiring and the appointment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors.
14. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; five per cent of the membership subject to a minimum of three shall be a quorum. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Council may determine.
15. The chair, if any, of the Council shall chair every General Meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chair, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the members of the Council present shall elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

16. If at any meeting no Council member is willing to act as Chair or if no Council member is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
17. A Council member shall, notwithstanding that he is not a member of the Company, be entitled to attend and speak at any General Meeting.
18. The chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no other business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Otherwise it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
19. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:
 - (a) by the chair; or
 - (b) by at least two members present and having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the Chair. The withdrawal of the demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.

20. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have.
21. A poll demanded on the election of a Chair, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chair of the meeting directs, not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may proceed pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

22. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at General Meetings shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution in writing may consist of two or more documents in like form each signed by one or more members.
23. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and the place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

24. Subject to Article 20, every member shall have one vote.
25. No member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all moneys presently payable by him/her to the Company have been paid.
26. No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chair whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

COUNCIL OF MANAGEMENT

27. The Council shall consist of the Honorary Officers who compromise a Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer and up to six members. The minimum number of Council Members shall be three.
28. The first Council members shall be those persons named in the statement delivered pursuant to section 10(2) of the Act, who shall be deemed to have been appointed under these Articles. Future Council members shall be appointed as provided subsequently in these Articles.
29. The Council members shall be paid all reasonable out of pocket, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from Council meetings or General Meetings of the Company or in connection with the business of the Company.

30. The Council may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any charitable body where such action will directly further the objects of the company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COUNCIL

31. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Council who may pay all expenses incurred in the formation of the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting. Any such requirement may be imposed either by the Act or by these Articles or by any regulation made by the Company in General Meeting; but no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Council which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
32. All cheques and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the Council shall from time to time determine provided that all cheques in excess of £250 shall be signed by not less than two authorised signatories.

 - (c) resigns his office by written notice to the Company;

35. A Council member shall not vote in respect of any contract in which he is interested or any matter arising thereout, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.

ELECTION OF COUNCIL MEMBERS

36. Council members shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting of the Company and one third of Council members shall retire annually. The members so to retire shall be those who resign voluntarily, those who complete three years service or who have been longest in office. As between members who have been in office the same length of time, those due to retire shall be chosen by lot.
37. Council members may serve for up to three years.
38. A retiring Council member shall be eligible for re-election to a second term of office of up to three years. Subsequently s/he will be eligible to stand only after a year has expired since the second term of office.
39. The Company at the meeting at which a Council member retires in manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring Council member shall, if offering himself/herself for re-election, be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such member shall have been put to the meeting and lost.
40. No person other than a Council member retiring at the meeting shall unless recommended by the Council be eligible for election to the Council at any General Meeting unless, not less than three nor more than twenty-one days before the date set for the meeting, there shall have been left at the registered office of the Company notice in writing signed by a member qualified to attend and vote at the meeting for which such notice is given, of his intention to propose such person for election, and also notice in writing signed by that person of his willingness to be elected. The notice shall give the particulars of that person which would, if he were so appointed, be required to be included in the register of committee members.
41. Subject to Article 27 the Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase or reduce the number of Council members.
42. The Council shall have power at any time to appoint any person to be a Council member, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing members but so that the total number of Council members shall not at any time exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Any Council member so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting, and shall then be eligible for re-election.
43. The Company may by ordinary resolution, of which special notice has been given in accordance with Section 303 of the Act, remove any Council member before the expiration of his period of office notwithstanding anything in these articles or in any agreement between the Company and such member. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a Council member removed under this Article.
44. No person may be appointed as a Council member:
 - (a) unless he has attained the age of 18 years;
 - (b) in circumstances such that, had he already been a Council member, he would have been disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 34.

Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes the chair shall have a second or casting vote. A Council member may, and the secretary on the request of a Council member shall, at any time summon a Council meeting. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a Council meeting to any member for the time being absent from the United Kingdom.
46. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the Council may be fixed by the Council and unless so fixed shall be one-third of the membership of the Council, subject to a minimum of two.
47. 53.
