3.2.1 by notice. Subject to the Insolvency Act 1986, the Security Holder may by notice to the Company convert the floating charge created by this deed into specific charges as regards all or any of the Assets specified in the notice at any time. At any time after the floating charge created by this deed has been converted to specific charges, the Security Holder may by notice subsequently reconvert it into a floating charge by notice in writing; or

3.2.2 by automatic conversion. Subject to the Insolvency Act 1986 and Clause 3.20 below, the floating charges created by this deed shall (in addition to the circumstances in which the same will occur under general law) automatically be converted (without any notice) into fixed charges over the assets, rights and property of the Company:

3.3 The floating charges created pursuant to Clause 3.1.3 may not be converted into fixed charges solely by reason of the obtaining of a moratorium or anything done with a view to obtaining a moratorium under Schedule A1 of the Insolvency Act 1986.

3.4 The covenants set out in sections 3(1), 3(2) and 6(2) of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 will not extend to Clause 3.1 above. 4. Collecting Non-Vesting Debts and Receivables
- 4.1 Each of you agree in favour of us that you will only deal with the Non-Vesting Debts as if they were Debts purchased by Barclays under the Agreement and in particular will not bank or deal with any payments in respect of the Non-Vesting Debts except in accordance with the Agreement.
- 4.2 Each of you undertake in favour of us that you will collect and realise all your Receivables and immediately on receipt pay all money which you receive in respect of them into any bank account of yours with any member of the Barclays Group, or into any other account designated by us, in each case on such terms as we may direct. Pending that payment, each of you will hold all money so received upon trust for us separate from your own money.
- 4.3 None of you may, without our prior written consent of, charge, factor, discount, assign, postpone, subordinate or waive your rights in respect of any Receivables in favour of any other person other than us nor purport to do so.
- 4.4 If proceeds of Receivables are credited or transferred to any account of yours, we shall have an absolute discretion whether to permit or refuse to permit you to utilise or withdraw money from that account (whether or not it is in credit) and we may in our sole discretion at any time transfer all or any part of the money standing to the credit of that account to any other account of yours with any member of the Barclays Group or to an account in our name or the name of any member of the Barclays Group.

5. Negative pledge and other restrictions

None of you may, except with the Security Holder's prior written consent:

- 5.1 create or attempt to create any fixed or floating security of any kind or any trust over any of your Assets, or permit any lien (other than a lien arising by operation of law in the ordinary course of your business) to arise or subsist over any of your Assets;
- 5.2 sell, assign, lease, license or sub-license, or grant any interest in, your Intellectual Property Rights, or purport to do so, or part with possession or ownership of them, or allow any third party access to them or the right to use any copy of them.

6. Further assurance

Each Company shall on demand execute any document and do any other act or thing (in either case, at the expense of the Company) which the Security Holder may reasonably specify for protecting, preserving or perfecting any security created or intended to be created by this deed or to vest title to any of the Assets in the Security Holder (or the Security Holder's nominee or any purchaser) or for facilitating the realisation of the security created by this deed, or otherwise for enforcing the same or exercising any of the powers, rights and discretions of the Security Holder under this deed, including the execution of all releases, transfers, assignments and other documents and the giving of all notices, orders, instructions, directions and requests for any consents to enable the property to be charged which the Security Holder may reasonably request.

7. Continuing security

This deed will remain a continuing security in favour of the Security Holder regardless of any settlement of account, termination or variation of the Agreement or any other matter whatever, and shall be without prejudice and in addition to every other right, remedy or security which we may have now or in the future in respect of any of the Assets for the payment of any Indebtedness.

8. Insurance

- 8.1 Each of you must insure all your insurable Assets with an insurance office or underwriter acceptable to us against loss or damage by fire and such other risks as we specify from time to time. This insurance cover must be for the full replacement value and be index-linked. Each of you must also maintain all other insurances normally maintained by prudent companies with similar activities to yours or as we may require.
- 8.2 Each of you must punctually make all premium and other payments necessary to effect or maintain these insurances and produce receipts for these payments on our request. If, at any time, any of you fails to have the required insurance cover in place or to produce any receipt on request or to deposit any policy with us under clause 3.5 or on request, we may take out or renew any insurance in any sum and on any terms we think appropriate.

9. Property obligations

- 9.1 Each of you must at all times keep all buildings, plant, machinery, fixtures, fittings and other effects charged under this deed in good repair and in good working order and condition.
- 9.2 Each of you must notify the Security Holder promptly of any indication given to you that any of your Assets is or may be listed in a register of contaminated land or contaminative use, or similar register. Each of you must also notify us if any environmental or other condition exists which could have a material adverse effect on the value of your Assets or your business.
- 9.3 Each of you will fully indemnify each of us, and our employees and agents, at all times against every claim, liability, loss or expense incurred directly or indirectly as a result of your failure to comply with any of your obligations, whether statutory or contractual, relating to your Assets.

10. Leases, possession, consolidation of mortgages

- 10.1 None of you may, without the Security Holder's prior written consent, exercise any power of leasing, or accepting surrenders of leases of, any of your Land, or (unless obliged to do so by law) extend, renew or vary any lease or tenancy agreement or give any licence to assign or underlet.
- 10.2 None of you may part with possession (otherwise than on the determination of any lease, tenancy or licence granted to you) of any of your Land or share the occupation of it with any other person, or agree to do so, without the Security Holder's prior written consent.

11. Powers of sale, leasing and accepting surrenders

- 11.1 Section 103 of the Law of Property Act 1925 will not apply to this deed, but the statutory power of sale (as between the Security Holder and a purchaser from the Security Holder) will arise on and be exercisable at any time after the execution of this deed. However, the Security Holder will not exercise this power of sale until this deed has become enforceable. This provision will not affect any purchaser or require him to ask whether it has become enforceable.
- 11.2 The Security Holder's statutory powers of sale, leasing and accepting surrenders are extended to allow the Security Holder (whether in the name of the relevant chargor or in ours) to grant a lease or leases of any Land vested in any of you or in which any of you have an interest with any rights relating to other Land and containing any covenants on the part of the relevant chargor and any terms and conditions that the Security Holder thinks fit.
- 11.3 The Security Holder's statutory power of sale is extended to allow the Security Holder to sever any fixtures from Land and sell them separately.

- 11.4 All powers of a Receiver under this deed may be exercised by the Security Holder to the full extent permitted by law after it has become enforceable, whether as attorney of the relevant chargor or otherwise, and whether or not a Receiver or administrator has been appointed.
12. Opening new accounts
- 12.1 On receiving notice that any of you have encumbered or disposed of any of your Assets in breach of this deed, we have the right to rule off the account or accounts of, and open a new account or accounts with, that one of you.
- 12.2 If we do not open a new account or accounts immediately on receipt of notice to that effect, as from that time all payments made by that one of you to us will be treated as if we had credited them to a new account and will not reduce the amount owing from you to us at the time when we received the notice.
13. Appointment of a Receiver or an administrator
- 13.1 Appointment of Administrator
- 13.1.1 At any time and from time to time after this security becomes enforceable in respect of a Company, or if a Company so requests the Security Holder in writing from time to time, the Security Holder may appoint any one or more qualified persons to be an administrator of such Company, to act together or independently of the other or others appointed (to the extent applicable).
- 13.1.2 Any such appointment may be made pursuant to an application to court under paragraph 12 of Schedule B1 of the Insolvency Act 1986 (Administration application) or by filing specified documents with the court under paragraphs 14 to 21 (inclusive) of Schedule B1 of the Insolvency Act 1986.

- 13.2.2 In this Clause 3.2, a "qualified person" means a person who, under the Insolvency Act 1986, is qualified to act as a Receiver of the property of any company with respect to which that person is appointed.

If at any time there is more than one Receiver in respect of all or any part of the Assets, each such Receiver may (unless otherwise stated in any document appointing that Receiver) exercise all of the powers conferred on a Receiver under this deed or under the Insolvency Act 1986 individually and to the exclusion of each other Receiver.
- 13.3.2 The powers referred to in the first sentence of Clause 13.3.1 above are:

- 13.3.2.8 Acquire assets: for such consideration and on such terms as the Receiver may think fit, to purchase outright or acquire by leasing, hiring, licensing or otherwise, any land, buildings, plant, equipment, vehicles or materials or any other property, assets or rights of any description which the Receiver considers necessary or desirable for the carrying on, improvement or realisation of any of the Assets or the business of the Company or otherwise for the benefit of the Assets;
- 13.3.2.9 Leases, etc.: to grant or agree to grant any leases whatsoever and let on charter, sub-charter, hire, lease or sell on condition and to grant rights, options, licences or easements over all or any part of the Assets for such term and at such rent (with or without a premium) as the Receiver may think proper and to rescind, surrender and accept or agree to accept a surrender of any lease or tenancy of such Assets or agree to any variation of any such contract affecting all or any part of the Assets on such terms as the Receiver may think fit (including the payment of money to a lessee or tenant on a surrender or any rent review);
- 13.3.2.10 Uncalled capital: to call up or require the directors or members (as applicable) of the Company to call up all or any portion of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company and to enforce payment of any call by action (in the name of the Company or the Receiver, as may be thought fit by the Receiver);
- 13.3.2.11 Compromise: to negotiate, settle, adjust, refer to arbitration, compromise, abandon and arrange any claims, accounts, disputes, questions and demands with or by any person who is or claims to be a creditor of the Company or relating in any way to the Assets or any part of them;

- 13.3.2.16 General powers: to do all such other acts and things as the Receiver may consider desirable or necessary for realising the Assets or any part of them or incidental or conducive to any of the matters, powers or authorities conferred on a Receiver under or by virtue of this deed, to exercise in relation to the Assets or any part of them all such powers, authorities and things as the Receiver would be capable of exercising if it were the absolute beneficial owner of them, and to use the name of the Company for all or any of such purposes.

13.4 Removal

The Security Holder may from time to time by writing remove any Receiver appointed by it (subject to the provisions of section 45 of the Insolvency Act 1986) and may, whenever it may deem it expedient, appoint a new Receiver in the place of any Receiver whose appointment may for any reason have terminated.

13.5 Remuneration

- 13.5.1 The Security Holder may from time to time, fix the remuneration of any Receiver appointed by it (which remuneration may be or include a commission calculated by reference to the gross amount of all moneys received or otherwise and may include remuneration in connection with claims, actions or proceedings made or brought against the Receiver by the Company or any other person or the performance or discharge of any obligation imposed upon the Receiver by statute or otherwise) but such remuneration shall be payable by the Company alone, and sections 109(6) and (8) of the Law of Property Act 1925 shall not apply in relation to any Receiver appointed under this deed.
- 13.5.2 The amount of such remuneration may be debited by the Security Holder to any account of the Company, but shall, in any event, form part of the Indebtedness and accordingly be secured on the Assets under the security contained in this deed.

13.6 Extent of appointment

The exclusion of any Assets from the appointment of the Receiver shall not preclude the Security Holder from subsequently extending the Receiver's or Receivers' appointment (or that of their replacement) to that part or appointing another Receiver over any other part of the Assets.

13.7 No liability as mortgagee in possession

The Security Holder shall not, nor shall any Receiver appointed as aforesaid, by reason of it or the Receiver entering into possession of the Assets or any part of them, be liable to account as mortgagee in possession or be liable for any loss on realisation or for any default or omission for which a mortgagee in possession might be liable.

13.8 Agent of Company

13.8.1 Every Receiver of any Company duly appointed by the Security Holder under the powers in that respect contained in this deed shall be deemed to be the agent of that Company for all purposes and shall as such agent for all purposes be deemed to be in the same position as a Receiver duly appointed by a mortgagee under the Law of Property Act 1925.

13.8.2 The Company alone shall be responsible for the contracts, engagements, acts, omissions, defaults and losses of the Receiver and for liabilities incurred by the Receiver and the Security Holder shall not incur any liability for them by reason of the Security Holder appointing such Receiver or for any other reason whatsoever.

13.9 Security Holder may exercise

To the fullest extent permitted by law, all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions which are conferred by this deed (either expressly or impliedly) upon a Receiver of the Assets may be exercised after the security created under this deed becomes enforceable by the Security Holder in relation to the whole of such Assets or any part of them without first appointing a Receiver of such property or any part of it or notwithstanding the appointment of a Receiver of such property or any part of it.

14. Power of attorney

Each Company by way of security irrevocably appoints the Security Holder (and any Receiver appointed under this fixed and floating charge) to be its attorney with full power of substitution, on its behalf and in its name or otherwise, at such time and in such manner as the attorney thinks fit:

- (a) prior to a demand or any enforcement action taken pursuant to this fixed and floating charge, to do anything which the Company is obliged to do under this fixed and floating charge (but has not done);
- (b) on and after service of a demand or any enforcement action taken pursuant to this fixed and floating charge, to do anything which the Company is obliged to do under this fixed and floating charge; and
- (c) to take any action which is ancillary to the exercise of any of the rights conferred on the Security Holder in relation to any Assets or under this fixed and floating charge or any other agreement with the Security Holder, the Law of Property Act 1925 or the Insolvency Act 1986, and ratifies and confirms and agrees to ratify and confirm whatever any such attorney shall do or purport to do in the exercise or purported exercise of all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions referred to in this Clause 14.

15. Costs, charges and liabilities

- 15.1 You will be responsible for all costs, charges and liabilities (including all professional fees and disbursements and Value Added Tax and/or any similar tax) and all other sums paid or incurred by us and/or any Receiver under or in connection with this deed or your affairs. We may recover them from you (on a full indemnity basis) as a debt payable on demand and debit them without notice to any of your accounts. They will attract interest and be charged on the Assets.
- 15.2 The costs which may be recovered from you by us and/or any Receiver under this deed include without limitation:
- a) all costs incurred by us in preparing and administering this deed or perfecting the security created by it;

- b) all costs (whether or not allowable on a taxation by the Court) of all proceedings to enforce this deed or to recover or attempt to recover any Indebtedness;
- c) all money spent and all costs arising out of the exercise of any power, right or discretion conferred by this deed;
- d) all costs and losses arising from any default by you in the payment when due of any Indebtedness or the performance of your obligations under this deed; and
- e) all our charges based on time spent by our employees and agents in connection with your affairs.

16. Set-off

We may retain any money standing to the credit of any of you with any member of the Barclays Group (in any currency, in any country and whether or not in your name) as cover for the Indebtedness. We may apply all or any of that money in satisfaction of all or part of the Indebtedness as we may select (whether presently payable or not). We may also use that money to purchase any other currency required for this purpose.

17. Foreign currencies

If, for any reason, any amount payable by any of you to us is paid or recovered in a currency other than that in which it is required to be paid ('the contractual currency') and, when converted into the contractual currency at our exchange rate applicable at the time, leaves us with less than the sum payable in the contractual currency, you must make good the amount of the shortfall on demand.

18. Authority of the Agent

18.1 The Agent is irrevocably authorised by each of you (other than the Agent), at any time while you remain bound by the provisions of this deed, with our prior agreement, (i) to add any further member of the Group as a party to this deed, (ii) to appoint another member of the Group to act as its successor as Agent, and/or (iii) to sign any document and perform any act on behalf of each or any of you required to effect or implement any of these matters.

18.2 Each act so performed and each document so signed by the Agent shall be binding on each of you and we may assume that any requisite approvals have been obtained by the Agent from all of you. This deed will continue in full force and effect, save as expressly amended by such changes.

19. Accession of new parties

19.1 Any member of the Group may at any time, with the prior written approval of the Agent and ourselves, become a party to this deed by delivering to us in form and substance satisfactory to the Security Holder (i) a deed of accession and charge substantially in the form set out in the second schedule and (ii) certified extracts from the minutes of a meeting of its Board of Directors evidencing due authorisation and execution of that deed of accession and charge.

19.2 The new party shall become a guarantor and chargor under this deed with effect from the time when the deed of accession and charge takes effect, at which point:

- the new party shall become bound by all the terms of this deed and shall assume the same obligations as guarantor and chargor as if it were an original party to this deed; and
- the existing guarantors and chargors shall assume the same obligations in respect of the new party as if it were an original party to this deed.

20. Miscellaneous Provisions

20.1 The Security Holder may at any time transfer all or any part of its rights under this fixed and floating charge and the Indebtedness to any person or otherwise grant an interest in them to any person.

- 20.2 The Security Holder or any Guaranteed Party may at any time in its entire discretion without notice or other formality combine any two or more accounts held by it in the name of the Company.
- 20.3 If at any time any one of the provisions of this deed is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any law, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this deed shall not in any way be affected or impaired.
- 20.4 The consent of any person who is not a party is not required to rescind or vary this fixed and floating charge or any other agreement entered into under or in connection with it.
- 20.5 This deed is intended to take effect as a deed notwithstanding the fact that any party may only execute deed under hand.
- 20.6 Each Company agrees that the Security Holder, any Guaranteed Party or any other member of the Barclays Group may share any information, obtained at any time, from whatever source relating to it, its Subsidiaries, the Agreement, and any guarantee or security relating to and including deed to:
- (i) any member of the Barclays Group;
 - (ii) any credit reference or rating agency;
 - (iii) anyone the Security Holder, the relevant Guaranteed Party or, as the case may be, the relevant member of the Barclays Group considers to be or likely to be involved in an assignment or transfer or possible assignment or transfer of all or any of our rights and/or obligations in respect of the Agreement, in whole or in part, including any person or persons (i) in connection with a securitisation of all or any part of the loan assets (including the Agreement) of any member of the Barclays Group from time to time or (ii) who may otherwise enter into contractual relations with any member of the Barclays Group in connection with any part of the loan assets of any member of the Barclays Group, the Agreement, or any guarantee or security relating to and including this deed;
 - (iv) anyone to whom information is required or requested to be disclosed by any court of competent jurisdiction or governmental, banking, taxation or other regulatory authority or similar body; and
 - (v) anyone to whom information is required or requested to be disclosed in connection with, and for the purposes of, any litigation, arbitration, administrative or other investigations, proceedings or disputes.
- 20.7 The Security Holder and Barclays will look after the information the Company provides and use it for processing any application and administering the Agreement, for research or analysis, and to prevent and detect fraud. Any member of the Barclays Group may also share it with fraud prevention agencies for these purposes, and keep it for so long as the law and legitimate business purposes allow.

21. Forbearance and severance

No delay or omission on our part in exercising any right, power or privilege under this deed will impair it or be construed as a waiver of it. A single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege will not in any circumstances preclude any other or further exercise of it or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

22. Governing law and jurisdiction

This deed and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. Each Company submits, for the exclusive benefit of the Security Holder, to the jurisdiction of the English courts (but without prejudice to the Security Holder's right to commence proceedings against any Company in any other jurisdiction) and irrevocably waives any objection on the ground of venue or inappropriate forum or any similar grounds.

23. Joint and separate liability

Unless the context otherwise requires, all covenants (except that in clause 2.1.1), guarantees, agreements and obligations on your part contained in this deed are given and entered into by you jointly and separately and shall be construed accordingly.

24. Counterparts and commencement

- 24.1 This deed may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties to it in separate counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be an original. All such counterparts will together constitute one and the same instrument.

24.2 This deed shall come into effect on the date inserted by us on the front page and shall be binding on all those that have executed and delivered it, notwithstanding that any one or more companies that were intended to execute it may not do so or may not be effectually bound.

25. Service of demands and notices

25.1 A demand or notice under this deed may be given on the Security Holder's behalf by any of the Security Holder's managers or officers in writing addressed to the relevant one of you (or the Agent as the case may be) and served at any of the following:

- its registered office;
- any of its existing places of business;
- its last known place of business.

Alternatively, a demand or notice may be delivered by facsimile transmission to its facsimile number last known to the Security Holder or by e-mail to its e-mail address last known to the Security Holder or by any other form of electronic communication which may be available.

25.2 A demand or notice shall be deemed to have been served:

- at noon on the day after the day of posting, if sent by post, even if it is misdelivered or returned undelivered;
- at the time of transmission, if given or made by facsimile, e-mail or other electronic communication.

25.3 A demand or notice addressed to any one or more of you shall also be sufficiently served if served on the Agent.

26. Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999

A person who is not a party to this deed has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce or enjoy the benefits of this deed except that any Secured Party may enforce any provision of this deed which is in favour or for the benefit of a Secured Party or the Secured Parties.

This deed of guarantee and fixed and floating charge is executed by each of you and the Agent as a deed and signed by us.

The First Schedule

Terms of the Guarantee

1. Definitions

In this schedule, "you" and "your" refer to each of you in your character as a guarantor of the others of you under the guarantee contained in clause 2.1.2, "guarantee" refers to that guarantee and "Principal" describes each of you insofar as you are or may become liable to us any indebtedness otherwise than as a guarantor of the others of you under the guarantee.

2. Your right to crystallise your liability under the guarantee

2.1 Any of you (a "crystallising guarantor") may crystallise (but for the future only) your liability under the guarantee following your giving notice in writing to us of your intention to do so, which notice will expire at midnight on the day three months after receipt of that notice by us or at another time specifically agreed in writing between you and us (the intervening period constituting the "Notice Period"). During the Notice Period we may continue to give credit and may make further advances to any Principal and the guarantee will apply to all such credit and advances. The guarantee will continue to be enforceable against the crystallising guarantor but its liability under the guarantee will, unless the guarantee becomes enforceable during the Notice Period, be crystallised (except as regards unascertained or contingent liabilities) at the end of the Notice Period and recoverability against it of the indebtedness of each Principal will be limited to the amount of that indebtedness at that time together with interest on that amount and our costs and charges relating to it (and interest on them).

2.2 If any of you gives notice in accordance with paragraph 2.1, we may break such accounts of all or any of you with any member of the Barclays Group as we deem appropriate and open new accounts for the account-holders affected.

2.3 The guarantee shall be incapable of termination except insofar as expressly permitted by paragraph 2.1.

3. Suspense account

We may at any time (without prejudice to our other rights) place and keep for such time as we may think prudent any money received, recovered or realised under or by virtue of the guarantee on a separate or suspense account to the credit of either us or any of you (as we think fit), without any intermediate obligation on our part to apply it or any part of it in or towards discharge of the indebtedness of any Principal. However, we will not seek to recover from you any interest on that indebtedness to the extent that interest would not have been payable if that money had been applied to that indebtedness on its receipt by us.

4. Preservation of our rights

4.1 The guarantee is to be in addition to and is not to prejudice or be prejudiced by any other guarantee or security (including any other guarantee signed by any of you) which we may hold now or in the future from or in respect of any Principal. Each of you will remain liable under the guarantee whether or not any other guarantee or security is valid and enforceable or continues in force. The guarantee may be enforced without our first making demand on any Principal or taking any steps or proceedings against any Principal or having recourse to any other guarantee or security, and notwithstanding any prior demand.

4.2 If the guarantee ceases for any reason to be binding on any of you as a continuing security in relation to any Principal, then we may break any account of the Principal and open a new account for it. If that is done, no money then or subsequently credited to any new account shall have the effect of reducing the amount due to us on the original account. If that is not done, we shall still be treated as if we had done so at the time of the cessation and as if all payments then or subsequently made by or on behalf of the relevant Principal to us had been credited to a new account with the same result.

4.3 None of you shall have any right to and you shall not:

- a) make any claim (whether by way of proof in insolvency or otherwise) against any Principal or any property of any Principal;
- b) participate in any security held or money received by, or on behalf of, the Secured Parties on account of the indebtedness of any Principal; or

c) stand in our place in respect of any of that security or money;

until all Indebtedness of each Principal has been repaid in full.

4.4 We may at any time (without affecting our rights under the guarantee) grant, extend, increase, renew, vary, determine or refuse any credit or facility to any Principal, or take, hold, exchange, vary, release, or abstain from perfecting or enforcing any guarantee or security held by the Security Holder for the Indebtedness of any Principal, or compromise with or extend time or grant waivers, releases or any indulgence to any Principal or any co-surety, or make any arrangement, concession or settlement with any of them or do or omit or neglect to do anything whatever which, but for this provision, might exonerate or discharge the obligations of any of you under the guarantee (except for a specific written release given by us of those obligations).

4.5 After the guarantee becomes enforceable, no payment received by us from any source (except payment from a Principal specifically in respect of its Indebtedness in that capacity) will be treated (regardless of the manner in which we may deal with it in our books or otherwise) as reducing the liability of any of you to us under the guarantee, so that, until we have received payment in full of that Indebtedness, it will be deemed, as between us and each of you (and except for any such payment from the relevant Principal), to remain wholly unsatisfied.

4.6 The winding-up or dissolution of any Principal will not affect the liability of any of you under the guarantee and any sum payable to us at the date of the commencement of the winding-up or immediately prior to the dissolution (as the case may be) will be treated as continuing payable until actually paid in full.

5. Adjustments

5.1 If the state of account between us and any Principal, by reference to which any Indebtedness is calculated for the purposes of the guarantee, requires adjustment at any time because of any insolvency law or because of any claim made against us by any office-holder (within the meaning of Section 234 of the Insolvency Act 1986) or any person performing a substantially similar function in any insolvency proceedings outside England and Wales, then, notwithstanding any other provision of the guarantee:

- a) the liability of each of you to us will be increased by any amount which we are required to pay or account for as a result of such adjustment; and
- b) we may treat any release or settlement made by us with any of you before any such adjustment is required as being of no effect and may recover from any of you the amount of any such adjustment.

5.2 If we are required because of any insolvency law to pay to any office-holder a sum of money referable to an amount paid to a third party out of any account of any Principal with any member of the Barclays Group, the amount of that repayment shall be treated as and form part of the Indebtedness of the Principal for the purposes of the guarantee.

5.3 If any claim is made against us under any insolvency law, we may agree the claim or settle it on any terms that we choose without asking for the agreement of any of you. If we do agree or settle the claim, each of you will be liable under the guarantee as if a court order had been made containing the terms that we have agreed. Each of you will be jointly and severally responsible to pay on demand to us all costs and expenses that we properly incur in defending that claim.

5.4 We may keep any security for any Indebtedness in order to protect us against any possible claim under insolvency law for up to three years after all Indebtedness of each Principal has been satisfied. If a claim is made against us within that period, we may keep the security until that claim has finally been dealt with.

6. Your liability as principal debtor

If any question shall arise as to the capacity of any Principal in relation to any dealing between it and us or as to the capacity, authority or power of any officer, employee or agent of any Principal to bind it to any transaction with us or as to whether any item recorded in our books or otherwise as constituting Indebtedness of any Principal is immediately due and payable, that question shall, as between us and each of you, be disregarded and each of you will for the purposes of the guarantee be and continue to be liable to us in respect of the relevant dealing, transaction and/or Indebtedness as if you were a principal debtor.

7. Evidence of Indebtedness

Any admission or acknowledgement in writing by or on behalf of any Principal as to any amount of its Indebtedness or otherwise, or any judgment or award obtained by us against any Principal, or any proof by us in winding-up which is admitted, or any statement of account furnished by us (the correctness of which is certified by any of our officers or managers), will be conclusive and binding on each of you, except in the case of manifest error.

8. Payments

8.1 All payments falling to be made by each of you under the guarantee will be made to us without any set-off or counterclaim and free from any deduction or withholding for or on account of any taxes or other charges in the nature of taxes imposed by any competent authority anywhere in the world, unless such deduction or withholding is required by law or practice.

8.2 If any such deduction or withholding is so required to be made by or on behalf of any of you, you will pay to us any additional amount necessary to ensure that we receive and retain the full amount of the relevant payment as if that deduction or withholding had not been made.

9. Change in composition of the parties

The guarantee shall remain effective notwithstanding any change in the composition of the parties to the guarantee.

10. Financial assistance

Notwithstanding any other provision of this deed, the guarantee shall not operate to guarantee any money or liability if and insofar and for so long as it would not be lawful under Part 18, Chapter 2, of the Companies Act 2006 (prohibition of financial assistance by a company for the acquisition of its own shares) for the relevant money or liability to be guaranteed under this guarantee by the relevant guarantor.

 - (vii) on the Company creating or attempting to create a trust over any of the Assets;
 - (viii) on the holder of any other security interest whether ranking in priority to or pari passu with or after the charges and security contained in this deed or the Company appointing, requesting the appointment of, an administrator, an administrative receiver, receiver, manager or receiver and manager in respect of the Company; or
 - (ix) any floating charge granted by the Company to any other person crystallising for any reason whatsoever.

- 3.3 The floating charges created pursuant to Clause 3.1.3 may not be converted into fixed charges solely by reason of the obtaining of a moratorium or anything done with a view to obtaining a moratorium under Schedule A1 of the Insolvency Act 1986.
- 3.4 The covenants set out in sections 3(1), 3(2) and 6(2) of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 will not extend to Clause 3.1 above. It shall be implied in respect of Clauses 3.1 above that the Company is disposing of the Assets free from all charges and encumbrances (whether monetary or not) and from all other rights exercisable by third parties (including liabilities imposed and rights conferred by or under any enactment).

- 3.6.1 you may continue to exercise all voting and other rights attaching to Securities as long as you remain their registered owner;
- 3.6.2 if Securities are registered in our nominee's name, all voting and other rights attached to them will be exercised by the nominee in accordance with the instructions you issue from time to time. In the absence of instructions, the nominee will refrain from exercising any of these rights.

- 3.8 Any debentures, mortgages or charges (fixed or floating) which the Company creates in the future (except those in our favour) shall be expressed to be subject to this deed and shall rank in order of priority behind the charges created by this deed.
4. Power of Attorney
