- (a) if the Bank shall have reasonable grounds for believing that an Obligor may be insolvent, bankrupt or unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due, or that value of an Obligor's assets may be less than the amount of its liabilities, taking into account its contingent and prospective liabilities or may be deemed for the purposes of any law to be insolvent or bankrupt, as at the date of any payment made by an Obligor to the Bank, then the Bank shall be at liberty to retain the Security Interests contained in or created pursuant to this Legal Mortgage, until the expiry of a period one month plus such statutory period with which any assurance, security, guarantee or payment can be avoided or invalidated;

- (b) the Bank shall be able to exercise its rights under paragraph (a) above notwithstanding (i) the payment and discharge in full of all Secured Liabilities or (ii) any release, settlement, discharge or arrangement that may be given or made by the Bank on, or as a consequence of, such payment or discharge of liability; and
- (c) if at any time within such period as is referred to in paragraph (a) above, any step or corporate action is taken in respect of an Obligor in relation to or with a view to any insolvency, bankruptcy, administration, winding up or receivership proceedings or procedure as set out in Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 or in the Insolvency Act 1986 or in relation to or with a view to any analogous proceedings or procedure in any jurisdiction the Bank shall be at liberty to continue to retain such Security Interests for such further period as the Bank may reasonably determine and such Security Interests shall be deemed to have continued to have been held as security for the payment and discharge to the Bank of all Secured Liabilities.

24. PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If, at any time, any provision of this Legal Mortgage is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under any law of any jurisdiction, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provision under the law of any other jurisdiction will in any way be affected or impaired.
