The directors present their annual report on the affairs of the company, together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2006

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements, and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Principal activity and business review

The company has been dormant, as defined in section 249AA of the Companies Act 1985, throughout the year.

The directors consider the state of the company's affairs to be satisfactory.

Results and dividends

The company did not trade during the year, and consequently made neither a profit nor a loss.

No dividend can be paid (2005 - £nil)

Directors and their interests

The directors who served during the year were as follows:

~~P.T. Clough~~
W D Munz
J D Hubbard

In accordance with the repeals of sections 324 to 326 and 328 to 329 and parts 2 to 4 of the Companies Act 1985, no disclosure is prepared in respect of directors' interests in shares of the company or the ultimate holding company, Bodycote International plc.
