DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Company law requires the director to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these accounts, the director is required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts,
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis until it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The director is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable him to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006 He is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

CLOSE COMPANY STATUS

The company is a close company within the meaning of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988.

ACCOUNTANTS

Richards and Co., Business Advisers and Tax Consultants expressed their willingness to continue in office and a resolution for their re-appointment will be proposed at the Annual General Meeting

This report is prepared in accordance with the special provision of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies. Approved by the Board on 23rd October 2012 and signed on their behalf by
