Directors' responsibilities statement for the year ended 30 November 2014

The directors are responsible for preparing the directors' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the financial statements

1. Accounting policies

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable accounting standards.

On the basis of their assessment of the company's financial position and resources, the directors believe that the company is well placed to manage its business risks. Therefore the company's directors have a reasonable expectation that the company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the annual financial statements.

1.2 Cash flow statement

The company, being a subsidiary undertaking of General Electric Company where 90% or more of the voting rights are controlled within the group whose consolidated financial statements are publicly available, is exempt from the requirement to draw up a cash flow statement in accordance with FRS 1.

1.3 Profit and loss account

During the financial year and the preceding financial year the company did not trade and received no income and incurred no expenditure. Consequently, during the year and the prior year the company made neither a profit nor a loss.

1.4 Transactions with related parties

The company, as a wholly owned subsidiary undertaking of General Electric Company, has taken advantage of an exemption contained in FRS 8, "Related Party Disclosures", in preparing its financial statements. This exemption allows the company not to disclose details of transactions with other group companies or investees of the group qualifying as related parties, as the consolidated financial statements of General Electric Company, in which the company is included, are publicly available.

2. Auditors' remuneration

	As at 30 November 2014 £000	As at 30 November 2013 £000
Fees payable to the company's auditor for the audit of the company's annual accounts	-	-

Remuneration paid to the auditors for their audit services to the company was borne by a fellow group undertaking.

3. Staff costs

There are no direct employees of the company (2013: nil). Employees are remunerated by another group company, under their contracts of employment with that company. There were no recharged costs to the company in the current year and prior year. Full disclosure regarding employees can be found in the financial statements of GE Money Servicing Limited.

The company reviews the bonus and remuneration schemes with GE Money Servicing Limited to ensure that adequate consideration is given to long term decision making and the interests of the employees are aligned to the success of the company.

Notes to the financial statements

4. Directors' remuneration

The company paid for no directors' remuneration in the current year (2013: £nil). During the year, none of the directors had any pension benefits provided by the company (2013: £nil).

All of the directors are/were also directors of GE Money Home Lending Holdings Limited, a parent undertaking and/or GE Money Servicing Limited, a fellow subsidiary undertaking, and do not specifically receive any remuneration in respect of their services to the company. It was not possible to determine an appropriate proportion of their services on behalf of the company. Accordingly disclosure regarding their total emoluments can be found in the financial statements of these companies.
