Statement of Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. The directors are required to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently. They also confirm that reasonable and prudent judgements have been made in preparing the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2010 and that applicable accounting standards have been followed.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended 30 June 2010

1. Principal accounting policies

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with applicable Accounting Standards in the United Kingdom. A summary of the more important accounting policies, which have been applied consistently, is set out below.

(a) Basis of accounting

The accounts are prepared on the historic cost convention.

(b) Basis of preparation

As at 30 June 2001 all contracts had expired. There is no intention to continue or renew trading and consequently the company has ceased to trade on its own account. The parent company, Volkswagen Financial Services (UK) Limited, has indicated that it will provide financial support to enable the company to cover any outstanding obligations.

(c) Cashflow statement

The company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Volkswagen Financial Services (UK) Limited.

The directors have adopted the provisions of FRS 1 (revised 1996) and have taken advantage of the exemption allowing them to dispense with the preparation of a cashflow statement on the grounds that the company is included in the consolidation financial statements of its parent undertaking which are publicly available.

(d) Related parties

The company's voting rights are controlled within the group headed by Volkswagen AG. The directors have adopted the provisions of FRS 8 and have taken advantage of the exemption of the disclosure requirements regarding intra group related party transactions and balances.

2. Directors' emoluments
