Directors' interests in shares of the company

The company has taken advantage of the exemption set out in The Companies (Disclosure of Directors' Interests) (Exceptions) Regulations 1985 not to disclose any beneficial interests in the share capital of Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft (the ultimate parent undertaking), held by directors.

Volkswagen Financial Services (UK) (September) Limited

Statement of directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. The directors are required to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis, unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used and applied consistently. They also confirm that reasonable and prudent judgements have been made in preparing the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2007 and that applicable accounting standards have been followed.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

On behalf of the board
