Respective Responsibilities of the Directors and Accountant

As described on page 8, the Management Committee is responsible for the preparation of the accounts and they consider that the Company is exempt from an audit. My responsibilities are to prepare the accounts on behalf of the Management Committee, based on the Company's accounting records and information and instructions from the Directors.

In my opinion:

- a. the accounts are in agreement with the accounting records maintained by the Company under Section 221 of the Companies Act 1985 and information provided by the Directors, and

STATEMENT OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 JULY 2002

Company law requires the Management Committee to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of its profit or loss for that period. In preparing those accounts, the Management Committee is required to:

select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;

prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Management Committee is responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable the said Committee to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. The Management Committee is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities. The Accounting Policies selected are set out on page 9.
