8 Statement of capital (prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares)^①

Please give the prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares for each class of share shown in the share capital tables in Section 7.

Class of share

ORDINARY

Prescribed particulars
①

Each share is entitled to one vote. On a return of capital on winding-up, the ordinary shares rank behind the preference shares in their entitlement to receive an amount equal to the nominal amount paid up on those shares.

① Prescribed particulars of rights attached to shares

The particulars are:

- particulars of any voting rights, including rights that arise only in certain circumstances;
- particulars of any rights, as respects dividends, to participate in a distribution;
- particulars of any rights, as respects capital, to participate in a distribution (including on winding up); and
- whether the shares are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or the shareholder.

A separate table must be used for each class of share.

Please use a Statement of capital continuation page if necessary.

Class of share

PREFERENCE

①

Each preference share is entitled to one vote (pari passu with the ordinary shares). On a return of capital on winding-up, the preference shares are entitled, in priority to any payment to the holders of the ordinary shares, to receive an amount equal to the nominal amount paid up on those shares. The preference shares have no right to receive a dividend nor a right to participate in the profits of the company. The shares are redeemable at any time at the option of the company.
